DR. JULIO FRENK

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

UNIVERSIDAD NACIONAL AUTÓNOMA DE MÉXICO, 1979

A fourth-generation physician whose paternal grandparents fled Germany in the early 1930s to build a new life in Mexico, Julio Frenk catalyzed his deep gratitude for the kindness of strangers into a lifelong mission to improve the health, education, and well-being of people around the world.

Dr. Frenk became the sixth president of the University of Miami in August of 2015. He also holds academic appointments as Professor of Public Health Sciences at the Leonard M. Miller School of Medicine and as Professor of Health Sector Management and Policy at the Business School.

Prior to joining the University of Miami, he was the dean for nearly seven years of the Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health and the T & G Angelopoulos Professor of Public Health and International Development, a joint appointment with the Harvard Kennedy School of Government.

Julio Frenk served as the Minister of Health of Mexico from 2000 to 2006. There he pursued an ambitious agenda to reform the nation's health system and introduced a program of comprehensive universal coverage, known as Seguro Popular, which expanded access to health care for more than 55 million previously uninsured Mexicans.

He was the founding director-general of the National Institute of Public Health in Mexico, one of the leading institutions of its kind in the developing world. He also served as executive director in charge of Evidence and Information for Policy at the World Health Organization and as senior fellow in the global health program of the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, among other leadership positions.

Dr. Frenk holds a medical degree from the National University of Mexico, as well as a master of public health and a joint Ph.D. in Medical Care Organization and in Sociology from the University of Michigan. He has received honorary degrees from ten universities. His scholarly production, which includes over 170 articles in academic journals, as well as many books and book chapters, has been cited around 19,000 times.

He is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the U.S. National Academy of Medicine, and the National Academy of Medicine of Mexico. He serves on the boards of the United Nations Foundation and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. He has received numerous recognitions, including the Clinton Global Citizen Award for changing the way practitioners and policy makers across the world think about health, the Bouchet Medal for Outstanding Leadership presented by Yale University for promoting diversity in graduate education, and the Welch-Rose Award for Distinguished Service from the Association of Schools and Programs of Public Health. In 2017, he was elected as a member of El Colegio Nacional, one of the most prestigious groups of intellectuals, artists, writers, and scientists of Mexico.

Julio Frenk was born in Mexico City in December 1953. He is married to Dr. Felicia Knaul, a social sector economist, and has four children.

In summary, Dr. Julio Frenk has an extensive professional record spanning three decades and a career that has included leadership positions in all relevant aspects of public health and higher education: research, teaching, analysis of public policies, institution-building, international cooperation, and national public service. He has also been involved in various initiatives to reform higher education.

DR. MARVIN DAWKINS

FACULTY REPRESENTATIVE

EDWARD WATERS, 1970

Dr. Marvin Dawkins, a distinguished professor in the Department of Sociology at the University of Miami, is in his ninth year as the Faculty Athletics Representative. He was named to the post in April 2012, replacing Clyde McCoy after his 17 years of service in that role.

In his FAR post, Dawkins is responsible for ensuring the academic integrity of students participating in University athletic programs and helping to oversee institutional control of the Department of Athletics. The Faculty Athletics Representative serves as a liaison between the University and the athletic department. This individual is the University's voting delegate to the ACC and represents UM with the NCAA and ACC.

Dawkins received his doctorate from Florida State and completed his postdoctoral research fellowships at Howard University and The Johns Hopkins University. He previously served on the faculties of the University of Maryland, Old Dominion University and the University of Wisconsin-Parkside.

His research focuses on issues of race and social equity in such areas as education, career aspirations and mobility, substance abuse prevention, and sports. He has published widely in these areas, including his most recent article titled "Race and Pathways to Power in the National Football League" (with Jomills H. Braddock and Erica Smith), which appears in American Behavioral Scientist (2012).

He has published widely in these areas. Dr. Dawkins is coauthor (with Graham C. Kinloch) of the book, African American Golfers During the Jim Crow Era (Praeger, 2000). His most recent publications include "African American Golf Clubs in the Early Development of Black Golf" in The Western Journal of Black Studies (2018) and "Challenges to Title IX: A Critical Race Perspective" in The Negro Educational Review (2019). Dr. Dawkins serves as the University of Miami's Faculty Athletics Representative to the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) and the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). He served as ACC President for 2017-2018. Dr. Dawkins is also a member of the Museum Committee of the United States Golf Association (USGA).

BLAKE JAMES

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

MINNESOTA STATE - MANKATO, 1992

Since 2013, when he began his tenure as the Director of Athletics at the University of Miami, Blake James has transformed The U, spearheading significant enhancements in all aspects of the department, including student-athlete support, academic achievement, community outreach, facility upgrades, fundraising, ticket sales, broadcast capabilities and content creation. In addition, many of Miami's sports programs have excelled on the fields, courts and courses of competition, earning NCAA and ACC titles and appearing in multiple postseasons.

Miami has captured five NCAA individual championships, six ACC team titles and 71 individual ACC titles during James' tenure. Miami's success continues to garner both James and UM national recognition. From 2017-19, James served a two-year term as Chair of the NCAA Division I Council, the group responsible for the day-to-day decision-making for all of Division I Athletics. In 2019, he was one of five nominees for the 2019 SportsBusiness Journal Athletic Director of the Yearaward. In 2017, James was selected as one of four Division I recipients of the 2016-17 Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year award from the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA). This past year, he served as the ACC's Chair of the Athletic Directors.

James has always placed a strong emphasis on academics and community outreach during his eight-plus years as Miami's Director of Athletics. Spring 2021 marked the 15th consecutive semester in which UM student-athletes averaged a 3.0 or higher cumulative GPA with 11 programs exceeding the 3.0 mark. Miami also placed 213 student-athletes on the ACC Honor Roll. UM's most recent NCAA Graduation Success Rate was 94 percent and Miami posted a 990 in the latest NCAA Academic Progress Report, both scores higher than the NCAA academic unit requirement. Eleven programs achieved perfect APR scores of 1,000 – men's basketball, women's basketball, women's cross country, men's diving, golf, rowing, soccer, women's swimming and diving, men's tennis, women's track and field and volleyball.

Despite the challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic, UM student-athletes amassed 3,420 community service hours this past school year and 10 programs ranked in the Top 10 of Division I schools in community service hours. UM student-athletes continue to make a significant impact on the social justice front with the help of the numerous leadership and civic engagement opportunities offered by the student-athlete development office.

Although the pandemic limited the amount of in-person events, Miami Athletics raised close to $9 million in 2020-2021, including more than $4 million raised in support of the Student-Impact annual fund, $2.5 million in commitments to support endowed scholarships, and almost $400,000 in direct support to women's athletics, attributable in large part to the annual Celebration of Women's Athletics event presented by adidas. In addition, UM established the Canes United Covid Relief Fund that saw many in the U Family rally around student-athletes to provide much needed financial support to ensure student-athletes had the best possible experience through the pandemic. UM continues to introduce numerous funding opportunities and ways to get involved at all levels of giving, including the new Athletic Director's Society, which will enhance the pool of resources to build state-of-the-art facilities, attract and retain the nation's best student-athletes and coaches, and provide those who wear the "U" an unparalleled collegiate experience.

UM has completed numerous facility projects during James' tenure, most recently the Jimmy and Kim Klotz Baseball Player Development Center. In 2018, the $40 million Carol Soffer Indoor Practice Facility opened, encompassing not just indoor practice fields for football, but also new football coaches offices, new football reception and recruiting areas, weight room renovations and new coaches' offices for golf, rowing, soccer and volleyball. Other recent facility enhancements include the opening of the Schwartz Center for Athletic Excellence; a new nutrition center; new artificial and natural playing surfaces and lights on the Greentree Practice Fields; a center-hung scoreboard inside the Watsco Center; renovations to the men's and women's basketball offices at Watsco Center; renovations to the Hecht Athletic Center; and a new videoboard for the Neil Schiff Tennis Center.

In 2018, UM set a record for football season tickets at Hard Rock Stadium (46,738) and also posted the school's highest average attendance at Hard Rock Stadium (61,469). From 2015-18, men's basketball tickets sold out for three consecutive seasons for the first time in school history.

Miami has built its broadcast, communications and marketing departments into some of the nation's leading digital media and video production units. Miami has continually ranked at the top of the conference in the number of live ACC Network Extra broadcasts each year and produced numerous ACC Network linear telecasts during the network's first two years. James was also instrumental in helping Miami strike one of the largest apparel deals in the country with adidas.

Prior to being named AD, James served as Interim Athletics Director and Senior Associate AD for Development and Ticket Operations at UM, where he oversaw the day-to-day operations of development, ticket sales and ticket operations. He also was a member of the Hurricanes' senior staff and provided sport supervision.

James returned to UM after spending seven years at the University of Maine, where he began as Senior Associate Athletic Director before being elevated to Director of Athletics, serving from 2005 to 2010. During his tenure, Maine Athletics experienced tremendous success, including three trips to the Frozen Four for the men's ice hockey program and NCAA playoff berths for football, baseball (two), women's basketball and softball. James implemented a comprehensive $17 million facility improvement plan at Maine, which included an indoor practice facility and numerous other facility upgrades and renovations. Academically, the program flourished, earning the conference academic cup twice and student-athletes maintaining a 3.0 GPA or above.

Prior to his stint at Maine, James worked in athletic development at Providence College, where he established the "Friars Forever" campaign and the Friar Athletic Fund.

James began his athletic career at UM, working in ticket sales, corporate sales and athletic development. In 1995, he was hired as Miami's Director of Ticket Sales, serving in that capacity until 1997, when he was named an athletic development officer at the University of Nebraska. He returned to Miami in 1998 as the Director of Major Gifts and Corporate Sales and was promoted to the Director of Athletic Development at Miami in 2000 before moving on to Providence in 2002.

James graduated from Minnesota State University - Mankato with a Bachelor's Degree in Marketing in 1992, and later received his Master's degree in Sports Administration from St. Thomas University in 1994. He and his wife, Kelly, have two children -- daughter, Haley, and son, Ryan.

JENNIFER STRAWLEY

DEPUTY AD / CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER / SWA

PENNSYLVANIA, 1998

Jennifer Strawley joined the University of Miami on June 18, 2012 and currently serves as Deputy Director of Athletics and Chief Operating Officer. She also serves as the department's Senior Woman Administrator.

Serving as the second-in-command, Strawley provides strategic direction for the department and assists the Director of Athletics with the day-to-day operations. She is the sport administrator for football, soccer, women's basketball and women's tennis. Strawley leads the department's strategic planning initiatives, policy development and implementation, coordination of department and coaches meetings and gender equity and inclusion initiatives. She oversees the areas of human resources, sports medicine, academic services, equipment / Adidas, video services and student-athlete development, as well as serves as a liaison to various campus groups, the ACC and the NCAA.

Strawley played a key role in the hiring of head football coaches Mark Richt and Manny Diaz. In addition, she was instrumental in the development of Miami's annual Celebration of Women's Athletics recognizing the achievements of Miami's female student-athletes while raising money to support women's athletics.

Actively engaged in intercollegiate athletics nationally, Strawley has served on various committees within the NCAA and the ACC. She currently serves on the ACC Television Committee, the ACC Women's Basketball foresight committee, the ACC Equity Committee, the ACC Infractions and Sportsmanship Review Committee, the ACC Football Schedulers Group, and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Oversight Committee. She also serves on the board of directors for Women's Leaders in College Sports and the Women's Basketball Coaches Association.

Prior to UM, Strawley concluded her second tour with the NCAA as the Director of Academic and Membership Affairs. In this role, Strawley was instrumental in providing leadership in the areas of academic governance and development of academic policy. Strawley served on the senior management team and was involved in a variety of other internal operations.

Strawley rejoined the NCAA after serving as the Associate Athletics Director for Intercollegiate Sport Programs and Senior Woman Administrator at Columbia University from 2007-10. While at Columbia, she oversaw numerous varsity sport programs including football and was the athletics program liaison for gender equity and diversity initiatives. Strawley was a member of the department's Executive Management Team.

Prior to her tenure at Columbia, Strawley was the Director of Membership Services and Student-Athlete Reinstatement at the NCAA. In this role, she provided oversight of the student-athlete reinstatement process and was instrumental in the implementation of the student first philosophy. Strawley served as a liaison to numerous NCAA committees, including the NCAA Divisions I, II and III Student-Athlete Reinstatement Committees and the NCAA Olympic Sports Liaison Committee

Strawley first joined the NCAA in 1998 as an enforcement services intern. She is a 1998 graduate of the University of Pennsylvania where she earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in history. During her time at Pennsylvania, she was a two-year captain for the Quakers' softball team. Strawley was inducted into the William Tennent High School Hall of Fame in of 2014.

JASON LAYTON

DEPUTY AD / CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

SAINT LEO, 1999

Jason Layton serves as the University of Miami Deputy Director of Athletics and Chief Financial Officer, a position he took over in August 2017. He initially joined Miami in December 2014 as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Communications and Sales.

In his current position, Layton is responsible for managing the department's business office, marketing, digital strategies, communications, ticket sales, client experience, ticket operations, analytics, video production, and broadcast departments.

Additionally, Layton has oversight of all departmental licensing matters, Hurricane Sports Properties, and serves as the department liaison for all ACC finance and ACC Network matters.

Since his arrival, Miami has seen exceptional growth in ticket sales, licensing revenue, and video production services in both content and broadcast with ESPN and the newly formed ACC Network.

Under Layton's guidance, Miami has seen unprecedented growth in football attendance, including the most season ticket holders in university history (46,738) during the 2018 season. 2018 overall attendance average, 61,469 fans, ranking first in the nation among stadiums with seating capacities under 70,000.

The 2017 season averaged 58,682 fans, ranking second in the nation among stadiums with seating capacities under 70,000. During the 2016 season, the Hurricanes totaled 42,000 season ticket holders, averaging 58,572 fans per game – the 27th-highest total in the nation and leader among all Power Five schools in percentage increase on a year-to-year basis (23 percent).

Miami also sold out its entire 2015-16, 2016-17, 2017-18 men's basketball season ticket allotments, marking the first time in Hurricane Athletics history that a team has sold out its season ticket allotment in back-to-back-to-back seasons.

Layton serves as the primary contact for ESPN, overseeing the recent launch of the ACC Network, first in digital format in August 2016, and building to the linear network in the fall of 2019.

Layton, a Florida native, arrived in Miami after spending the 2012-2014 seasons at Colorado State University, where he served as the department's Senior Associate Athletics Director for Sales and Marketing. During his time in Fort Collins, Colo., Layton's ticket sales plans drove double-digit increases in football, volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball revenue and tickets sold.

Before he arrived at Colorado State, Layton spent 13 years with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. In his 13 years with the club, he handled a variety of responsibilities including sales, marketing, ticket operations, luxury suite operations, advertising, accounting, finance, and purchasing. Layton began his career with the Buccaneers as a customer service representative in 1999 before elevating to the role of Senior Director of Business Administration in 2011. Layton received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Saint Leo University in Saint Leo, Fla.

DAVID WYMAN

SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD
ACADEMIC SERVICES
FLORIDA A&M, 1994

"When you do the right things, the right things happen."

David Wyman has empowered over 2,500 student-athletes with his signature creed. Now in his 27th year, Wyman has advised and mentored a diverse population of student-athletes to become skilled professionals in many different careers.

Wyman is the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Academic Services at the University of Miami, a position he was promoted to in August 2017. Wyman is also the sport administrator for Miami's volleyball and Men's Tennis program.

He began his own career as an intern, and was quickly promoted to the full-time staff after working just two months in the academic services division. Wyman became the assistant director two years later, supervising the tutorial program and advising both the football and men's basketball teams. He was then promoted to associate director, taking on the responsibility of coordinating the NCAA eligibility certification for all 400 student-athletes.

Since 2004, Wyman has managed the Division of Athletic Academic Services, currently leading a staff of ten full-time professionals. Under his leadership, the department and sport programs have gained national recognition and honors for continued growth in both academic progress rates (APR) and graduation success.

A 2016 inductee to the Iron Arrow Honor Society, Wyman has helped guide the football team to a pair AFCA Academic Achievement Awards for graduating 100 percent of student-athletes in the freshman classes of 2002 and 2009. Under his leadership, the University of Miami Graduation Success Rate has been 90% or higher seven out of the last eight years.

Wyman is a 1994 graduate of Florida A&M with a bachelor's degree in accounting. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from St. Thomas University in 1995. Born in Staten Island, N.Y., he is married to Jewyll, and the couple has three daughters: Rebecca, Dominique and Sarah. Wyman has been a Big Brother in the Miami-Dade Big Brother/Big Sister Organization and is also a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, The National Leadership Honor Society and the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics.

DR. RENAE MYLES PAYNE

SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD
ADMINISTRATION
SOUTHERN MISS, 1997

Dr. Renae Myles Payne joined Miami Athletics on Oct. 9, 2019 as the department's Senior Associate Athletic Director, Administration. In June 2020, her role was expanded to include, Chief Diversity Officer.

Myles Payne, who reports to the Deputy Athletic Director/Chief Operating Officer, is responsible for the direct oversight of policy development, budget and personnel management of video services, equipment, swimming and diving and golf. She will also provide oversight and leadership to all aspects of sports administration within the department including game contracts, budgets, scheduling and team rules.

In addition, Myles Payne is responsible for oversight and development of department policies and procedures. She will provide leadership for development and implementation of the strategic plan, as well as leadership and management of inclusion and diversity initiatives.

"We are thrilled to welcome Renae to the Hurricanes family," Deputy AD/COO Jennifer Strawley said upon her hiring. "Renae's decorated background in athletics administration, as well as her extensive work on numerous national governing boards and committees, will be a tremendous asset to the day-to-day operations of UM Athletics."

Myles Payne, who boasts over 20 years of experience in college athletics, arrived in Coral Gables from Winthrop University, where she served as Senior Associate AD for Internal Operations and Senior Woman Administrator for three years. Prior to her stint at Winthrop, she worked at the University of Connecticut, University of Pittsburgh, San Jose State, Delaware State, Southwest Baptist and Alabama A&M.

In July 2019, Myles Payne received the NCAA Division I Administrator of the Year Award from Women Leaders in College Sports. She was recently a member of the NCAA Committee on Academics and served on the Data Review Subcommittee. She is on the Board of Directors of the Minority Opportunities Athletic Association (MOAA) and is the chair of the Symposium Committee. Myles Payne is a regular presenter at MOAA and the College Athletics Business Management Association (CABMA) at the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) conventions. She is a member of Women Leaders in College Sports and a proud member of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc.

Myles Payne completed the NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males & Females and the Women Leaders in College Sports Mentoring Institute for Advancement in 2009 and Executive Institute in 2019, NACDA Mentoring Institute (2009, and 2014, 2019), Sport Management Institute (2011), the 1A Athletic Directors' Association Institute (2011, 2012, 2013), Executive PREP Advisory Program (2012), Collegiate Athletics Leadership Symposium (2012 and 2013) and Leadership Huntsville (2015). She is also a certified facilitator of True Colors Personal Success Assessments.

Myles Payne, a native of Clarksdale, Miss., graduated from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1997, where she also competed in track and field. She received her M.Ed. in Sports Administration in 2000 from Northwestern State and her Ed.D. in Higher Education Administration from Pittsburgh in 2005.

NORTH CAROLINA, 1995

Carter Toole serves as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Communications and Digital Strategy at the University of Miami. He joined the Hurricanes as an Associate AD in November 2016 and was promoted to his current role in August 2017.

Toole oversees UM's communications, digital and graphics departments, as well as assisting with publicity for the football program and head football coach Manny Diaz. He also serves as the sport administrator for the women's tennis program. Miami's communications staff won its first Football Writers Association of America Super 11 Award in 2018.

Toole previously co-owned a Nashville-based marketing agency, Wheelhouse Marketing Advisors, which was acquired by a local technology firm (Atiba) at the end of 2015. Before launching Wheelhouse, he served as Vice President, Digital, at another Nashville firm, January & Associates.

Prior to entering the agency business, Toole worked in the National Football League for nine seasons with four teams. After public relations stints with the Green Bay Packers, Tennessee Titans and Tampa Bay Buccaneers, he joined the Houston Texans as the club's first Director of Internet services & Publications. He was part of the Texans' communications staff that won the Pete Rozelle Award in 2004 as voted on by the Pro Football Writers Association of America. He also authored the book Opening Night on Houston's return to the NFL. Toole has worked eight Super Bowls as a member of the NFL's media relations staff.

Toole started his sports communications career in the media relations offices at Arizona State University and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he earned his bachelor's degree in English.

A native of Alexandria, Va., Toole and his wife, Barbara, have two daughters.

CRAIG ANDERSON
SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD
COMPLIANCE
PITTSBURGH, 2005

Craig Anderson was appointed to the athletics department's executive senior staff and named Senior Associate Athletics Director for Compliance in July 2015.

In his current role, he provides direct oversight for the compliance office and is responsible for managing all aspects of the University's compliance program, including educating coaches, student-athletes, boosters, athletic department staff and other University officials about NCAA and Atlantic Coast Conference rules and regulations and also oversees the drug testing program for the Athletics Department. In addition he currently serves as the sport administrator for both the men's basketball and baseball programs.

Anderson joined the Hurricanes in March 2013 as the Associate Athletics Director for Compliance, having previously served in similar roles at NC State, the University of Virginia and UNLV. He is actively involved in national governance activities. He currently serves on the NCAA Division I Initial-Eligibility Waivers Committee and previously served on the ACC Constitution & Bylaws Committee.

A native of Corning, NY, Anderson received his bachelor's degree in political science from the University of Pittsburgh where he worked in the Compliance Office for four years. He earned his master's degree in athletic administration from Marshall University.

CHRIS COHEN
SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD
DEVELOPMENT
MIAMI, 1997, 2009

Chris Cohen is responsible for all development operations for UM Athletics, including campaign oversight, major giving, annual fund, donor stewardship, event hospitality and coordination with central university development efforts. Cohen is currently in his 19th year overall at Miami.

Cohen has been a part of every major athletics fundraising initiative at the University since 2000, including the Hurricane Club annual fund, construction of a new home arena for our men's and women's basketball programs as well as both University-wide capital campaigns. During Cohen's tenure, he has solicited and secured gifts on over $150 million in capital projects and facility improvements, including the Carol Soffer Indoor Practice Facility, Schwartz Center for Athletic Excellence, Watsco Center, Basketball Victory Fund, Alex Rodriguez Park, Hecht Athletic Center expansion and the Schiff Tennis Center.

Cohen is an original member of the Athletics fundraising team for the historic University-wide Momentum Campaign (2000-2008) that saw Miami as the first institution in the state of Florida to complete a $1 billion capital campaign. During the Momentum Campaign, the Athletics team raised more than $85 million, eclipsing a goal of $68 million and also raised $118 million toward the $1.6 billion total for the Momentum2 Campaign completed in 2016.

Prior to working in the Hurricane Club, Cohen began his full-time career at UM Athletics in the ticket sales department where he was an account executive in one of college athletics' first outbound sales teams. Prior to UM Athletics, Cohen was a ticket sales associate for the Miami Heat.

Cohen is a two-time alumnus of the University of Miami, graduating with honors in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in business administration (majoring in sport management). Cohen went on to receive a master's degree in sport administration in 2009. He serves on the board of the University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame, is a published author and is an active guest lecturer in the Sport Administration department. He and his wife Gaby, have two children – son, Jake, and daughter, Sadie.

TIM WISE
SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD
FACILITIES & EVENT OPERATIONS
SOUTH CAROLINA, 1996

Tim Wise is in his eighth year as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Facilities and Event Operations at the University of Miami. Wise joined the UM staff in June 2012.

Wise has oversight of numerous areas within the department: facilities and maintenance services, capital projects/construction, facilities master planning, event management and guest services, camps/clinics, risk management and information technology. He is also the liaison to the Watsco Center and Hard Rock Stadium, as well as serves as the sport administrator for Miami's rowing team. He previously oversaw the strength & conditioning, nutrition and women's soccer programs.

Wise, who has more than 24 years of experience in college athletics as an event manager, facilities director and administrator, was hired by the University of Wisconsin Athletic Department as assistant athletic director for events and facilities in August, 2008. In January 2012, he was named interim associate athletic director and elevated to the senior management team with additional oversight of the University Ridge Golf Course and $125 million in capital projects.

Wise also had supervisory oversight of the UW Athletics event management, facilities, food and beverage and guest services units and oversaw an annual budget of approximately $15 million. He also served in a lead role in administrative coordination of UW Athletics concerts, summer camps and event parking.

Wise served as the director of facility maintenance at the University of Connecticut from August 2005 to August 2008. He oversaw daily operations of athletic facilities, projects and event operations as the assistant athletics director for facilities and operations at Eastern Michigan University from November 2003 to June 2005.

Wise was hired as the athletics event manager at the University of Denver in August 2000 and promoted to the director of athletics events in August 2001 and served in that role until October 2003. Prior to his time at Denver, Wise was the event services manager at The Ohio State University's Schottenstein Center.

Wise was an event operations manager intern at Michigan State University from August 1998 to May 1999. His first position upon graduation from college was as a conference coordinator at the University of South Carolina from December 1996 to January 1998.

Wise has extensive experience working at NCAA and conference championship events. At Wisconsin, he served on the departments Diversity Integration Group and was the representative to the City of Madison and UW Campus Joint Southeast Campus Area Committee. In the past, he served on Connecticut's Environmental Compliance Team as well as the schools Environmental Policy Advisory Council. He also served on the NCAA Woman of the Year Selection Committee and the NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee, three years as the Vice Chair. Wise earned the University of Denver Center for Multicultural Excellence Outstanding Staff Award in 2002-03.

Wise is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha, Fraternity, Inc. and served as the President of the local Mu Eta Lambda alumni chapter. He is a member of the Collegiate Event and Facility Management Association and was named to the Board of Directors in September 2011 and the 3rd Vice President in June 2012, 2nd Vice President in June 2013, 1st Vice President in June 2014 and served as The President for 2015-16. Wise also has membership in the Minority Opportunities Athletic Association and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

In February 2017, Wise was named to the MOAA Board of Directors, and in 2019, he was named to the organization's Executive Committee. He has participated in the NCAA Leadership Institute Continuing Education Series, the NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males, the NACDA Mentoring Institute and NCAA Diversity Education Training. Most recently, Wise completed and graduated from the highly prestigious collegiate athletics executive leadership training program at the Sports Management Institute.

Wise is a 1996 graduate of the University of South Carolina with a bachelor's degree in business administration and earned a masters' degree in human performance and sport studies from the University of Tennessee in 1998.

SHIRELLE JACKSON

SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

BOWLING GREEN, 1994

Shirelle Jackson is the Senior Associate Athletic Director of Student-Athlete Development at the University of Miami. Jackson initially joined Miami as the director of student-athlete development in March 2014 and was promoted to assistant AD in July 2016.

Elevated to her current title in August 2017, Jackson also oversees the Hurricanes' track and field and cross country programs.

Prior to joining the athletics department, Jackson spent the previous five years in various capacities in the College of Arts and Sciences at UM. In 2014, Jackson received the Department of Biology Excellence in Service Award, for her efforts with 800 + Biology majors.

Her initial position within athletics was a new role intended to enhance the athletic department's efforts to develop programming which will enhance the total development of our student-athletes. Under her vision and leadership that role has grown into an office with two full time staff members and year round programming and leadership opportunities for our student athlete population. Due to the high level of community outreach, in 2018, the Miami Hurricanes earned the NCAA Helper-Helper Division I Community Service National Championship Award.

In addition to community service & outreach efforts, Jackson has been a featured panelist & speaker for the Women In Sports Forum, 2016 and 2018. She also served in the same capacity for Women Leaders in College Sports (formerly NACWAA)during their Institute for Administrative Advancement, 2019. Jackson has been a member of Women Leaders in College Sports since 2002. She is a 2002 graduate of Women Leaders/HERS Institute for Administrative Advancement. In 2016, Jackson received the Women Leaders Nell Jackson Administrator of the Year Award for her efforts engaging student-athletes, department staff & campus partners with an inclusive environment.

Prior to arriving at UM, Shirelle was the director of athletic academic support services from 2005-08 at FIU, where she oversaw the management and operation of the school's academic support program for its 400 student-athletes. She also coordinated the academic and personal advising, class registration, tutors, study hall and study skills workshops. During her tenure at FIU, she saw her full-time staff increase to six and the student-athlete graduation rate improved by 16 percent.

She was the assistant director for student-athlete services for 11 months at Bowling Green State University in Bowling Green, Ohio. Her first athletics position was as assistant AD for student development from August 2002-July 2004 at Eastern Connecticut State.

Jackson was a two-year letter winner for the women's track and field team at Bowling Green. She received her bachelor's degree from Bowling Green in 1994 and her master's degree in counseling from Central Connecticut State in 1998. She is currently a doctoral candidate in higher education leadership at Nova Southeastern in Davie.

She is married to Jason Jackson, who is the television host and courtside reporter for Miami HEAT telecasts on Sun Sports. The couple has two children – Justin and Jordan.

2021 MEDIA GUIDE

MANNY DIAZ

Head Coach (Third Season) | 14-10 | Sixth Season at Miami (24th Overall)

Manny Diaz, who has deep roots in the Miami community and catapulted the Hurricanes defense to elite status during his time as the team's defensive coordinator from 2016-2018 – was announced as the 25th head coach of the University of Miami football program on Dec. 30.

2021 will mark Diaz's third season as head coach of the Hurricanes and a return to his roots as defensive signal caller.

"Manny is one of the nation's elite coaches and the Canes' Family has already embraced him and his incredible work ethic over the past three years," said UM Director of Athletics Blake James upon his hiring. "He is absolutely the passionate and innovative leader that our program needs, and we will work together to build an incredible staff to move our program back into championship contention."

Diaz, who has an impressive resume during nearly two decades as a defensive specialist coaching several collegiate programs, accepted his dream job of leading a Hurricanes team he believes is destined to return to the top echelon of collegiate football in the years to come.

"Miami is home. The University of Miami is home. The U has truly been 'the job' for me since I first got into coaching," said Diaz. "Having worked here over the past three years, I came to understand what it means to be part of 'The U' and came to appreciate the passion and commitment to excellence of all who proudly call themselves Canes. We will restore the football program to its place among the nation's elite and we will do it with hard work, dedicated coaches, and outstanding student-athletes. I'm excited about working with Blake and his team to make that happen."

In his most recent season as head coach of the Hurricanes, Diaz led Miami to an 8-3 overall record, including a 7-2 mark in Atlantic Coast Conference play, and an appearance in the Cheez-It Bowl. Miami won seven games in ACC play for the second time with Diaz on staff (2017) and the third time overall.

During his 20-year coaching career, Diaz, the son of a former Miami mayor, also named Manny Diaz, has coached in 19 bowl games, amassing a 13-6 record in bowls, and has coached numerous all-conference and NFL players at six collegiate institutions.

Miami delivered another stellar season on defense in 2018. The Hurricanes ranked No. 4 in total defense and ranked No. 1 in several categories, including tackles for loss, third down conversion percentage and passing yards allowed. Defensive tackle Gerald Willis earned All-American honors from several outlets while linebacker Shaq Quarterman was named to the All-ACC First Team – one of eight all-conference picks.

Continuing the impressive trends from Diaz's first year running the defense, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss and ninth nationally in opponent yards per play. Five Hurricanes on the defensive side of the ball earned 2017 All-ACC honors while another three picked up Honorable Mention recognition.

Thanks in large part to his dominating unit, Miami also ranked No. 5 nationally in turnover margin, No. 8 nationally in fumbles recovered and No. 15 nationally in passes intercepted.

Miami's defense enjoyed vast improvements under Diaz' watch and served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in his first season in 2016.

At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshmen linebackers in 2016. Three defensive players earned ACSMA All-ACC honors – senior defensive backs Corn Elder (second team) and Rayshawn Jenkins (honorable mention) and Quarterman at linebacker (honorable mention).

In 2015, Diaz's defensive unit helped Mississippi State to a 9-4 record and a victory over NC State in the Belk Bowl. His defensive unit held opponents to just 23.2 points per game and ranked in the nation's top 10 in red zone defense and tackles for loss.

Diaz spent one season, 2014, at Louisiana Tech and his impact was felt in a big way. The Bulldogs led the nation in turnovers gained (42) with 16 fumble recoveries and 26 interceptions.

Before his stop at Louisiana Tech, Diaz coached three seasons at Texas (2011-13). His 2011 defensive unit ranked ninth in total yards per play.

In 2010, during his first stint at Mississippi State, Diaz guided a defense that ranked 22nd in the nation in scoring defense (19.9 ppg), 17th in rushing defense (214.9 ypg) and 17th in tackles for loss (7.0 pg). MSU also finished ranked 13th in red-zone defense (.730) and 22nd in turnovers forced (28) nationally in 2010.

Before his first stop at Mississippi State, Diaz spent four seasons as defensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee State. Diaz coached linebackers for two years after mentoring the safeties during his first two years.

In four years under Diaz, MTSU's defense led its conference in sacks and tackles for loss twice, and finished no lower than third in the league in either category during his tenure. In 2009, the Blue Raiders finished second nationally in tackles for loss. Diaz's defense also ranked sixth nationally in sacks that season, posting nearly three per game.

Before joining Middle Tennessee, Diaz played a significant role for one of the country's top-ranked defenses by coaching safeties in 2004-05 and handling the linebackers in 2002-03 for NC State.

Diaz spent the 2000 and 2001 seasons at NCSU as a graduate assistant working primarily with the linebackers. During that time, the Wolfpack went to two bowl games and became the first ACC team to beat Florida State in Tallahassee.

Diaz began his coaching career at Florida State in 1998. In his two years as a graduate assistant, he was on the same coaching staff as Miami head coach Mark Richt and was part of the Seminoles' national title-winning coaching staff in 1999.

Diaz and his wife Stephanie have three sons: Colin, Gavin and Manny.

Rhett Lashlee is entering his second season as the Miami Hurricanes' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2021.

Lashlee, who was a semifinalist for the Broyles Award honoring the nation's top assistant in his first season at The U, spent the 2018-19 seasons as offensive coordinator / quarterbacks coach at Southern Methodist before joining the Hurricanes prior to the 2020 season.

In his first season in Coral Gables, the Hurricanes jumped to No. 32 in FBS in total offense (from No. 98), No. 29 in passing offense (from No. 52), No. 26 in scoring offense (from No. 90), No. 17 in red zone offense (from No. 122) and No. 20 in first downs gained offense (from No. 84).

Under his watch, QB D'Eriq King was a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and Davey O'Brien Award. Several offensive players enjoyed career years under his tutelage, including WR Michael Harley and TE Brevin Jordan, who was a Mackey Award semifinalist and an eventual 2021 NFL Draft pick of the Houston Texans.

Lashlee helped lead the Mustangs to a 10-3 finish in 2019, guiding an offense that ranked No. 7 in FBS in scoring (41.8 points per game), No. 13 in passing offense (309 yards per game), No. 9 in total offense (489.8 yards per game) and No. 12 in first downs gained (322). The Mustangs were ranked No. 3 nationally in "plays per game. averaging 80.9 – a testament to Lashlee's up-tempo offensive style. SMU was one of only 34 teams in FBS to average more than six yards per play in 2019. Quarterback Shane Buechele threw for 3,929 yards with 34 touchdowns and just 10 interceptions.

In his first season at SMU, the Mustangs offense ranked 27th nationally in passing offense at 271.7 yards per game. Prior to joining SMU's staff, Lashlee served as an offensive coordinator for seven seasons, spending 2017 at UConn, 2013-16 at Auburn, 2012 at Arkansas State and 2011 at Samford.

Prior to UConn, Lashlee helped Auburn to the 2013 SEC Championship, a BCS Championship berth and the 2016 Sugar Bowl, managing one of the more prolific offenses in college football during his tenure. The 2013-14 seasons were the best back-to-back offensively in Auburn history, and the 2014 squad set an Auburn record for total offense. Lashlee also served as the quarterbacks coach and demonstrated impressive ability to develop talent. In 2013, Auburn had the second biggest turnaround in college football history. Starting QB Nick Marshall did not practice until August, but Lashlee tutored the junior college transfer to 3,044 yards of total offense (1,976 passing, 1,068 rushing), 14 TD passes and 12 rushing TDs.

Lashlee was the offensive coordinator at Arkansas State (2012), helping the Red Wolves to a Sun Belt Championship and quarterback Ryan Aplin to conference Player of the Year honors, and at Samford (2011) and also served as a graduate assistant at Auburn (2009-10) and Arkansas (2006). While at Auburn as an offensive graduate assistant during the 2009-10 seasons, Lashlee assisted Gus Malzahn with all aspects of the offense and coached the quarterbacks and slot receivers in 2010. During the 2010 season, he helped the Tigers finish 14-0, winning the SEC title and the BCS National Championship behind Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Cam Newton. Lashlee coached at Springdale (Ark.) High School in 2004-05.

Lashlee has been a finalist for the Broyles Award, presented to the nation's top assistant coach, on two occasions.

Lashlee graduated from Arkansas in 2006 with a degree in marketing and business administration. He received his master's degree in higher education from Auburn in 2009.

He is married to the former Lauren Lee. They have twin sons, Thomas and Hudson, and twin daughters, Rowyn and Scarlet.

2012-13	Incarnate Word	Graduate Assistant

Jonathan Patke is entering his third season as Miami's outside linebackers coach and second as special teams coordinator.

In 2019, Patke helped coach a defense that ranked No. 13 nationally in total defense (yards allowed per game) and No. 12 nationally in yards per play. In addition, the Hurricanes ranked No. 4 nationally in tackles for loss, No. 6 in sacks, No. 10 in run defense, No. 16 in red zone defense and No. 18 in pass defense. In Patke's first season as special teams coordinator, Miami's punting unit vaulted to No. 30 in FBS in net punting and Lou Hedley ranked No. 26 in yards per punt in his first season at The U.

Patke joined the Miami football coaching staff before the start of spring practice in 2016 and served as the team's quality control analyst for Hurricanes' defensive unit for the 2016 and 2017 seasons. He was elevated to outside linebackers coach prior to the 2018 season, where Miami's defense ranked among the nation's best in several categories.

The Hurricanes were ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense in 2018 and were No. 1 in team tackles for loss, passing yards allowed and third down defense.

In Patke's second season as a quality control analyst in 2017, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss and ninth nationally in opponent yards per play.

Miami's defense served as one of the top units both in the ACC and nationally in Patke's first season at Miami in 2016.

At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Miami was the only team in the country to start three true freshmen linebackers. In his former role, Patke worked directly with Miami defensive coordinator Manny Diaz and assisted with the Hurricane linebackers.

In addition, Patke broke down film and provided scouting reports to the defensive staff. Patke arrived in Coral Gables after he spent the 2015 season at Mississippi State where he also worked with Diaz on the defensive side of the ball, serving as a graduate assistant.

During his lone season in Starkville, Patke helped guide the Bulldogs to a 9-4 record and a victory in the 2015 Belk Bowl in Charlotte, N.C. In addition, the Bulldogs' set the school record for tackles for loss and ranked 10th nationally in 2015.

Before joining the coaching staff at Mississippi State, Patke also worked with Diaz at Louisiana Tech during the 2014 campaign. Louisiana Tech's defensive unit ranked No. 1 in the country in turnovers gained and interceptions. The Bulldogs also ranked second nationally in tackles for loss.

Patke began his coaching career in 2011 at University of The Incarnate Word, working with current safeties coach Ephraim Banda. He spent two years at UIW and earned his master's degree in business administration with an emphasis on sports management.

Patke received his undergraduate degree in business adminstration from Stephen F. Austin State University in 2008. He also played linebacker at SFA for four years (2004-08) and was a three-year starter.

Miami native Ishmael Aristide, who spent the previous two seasons as a defensive analyst at Texas A&M, joined the Miami Hurricanes football staff as outside linebackers coach.

"We're excited to welcome Ishmael to the Hurricanes program," head coahc Manny Diaz said upon his hiring. "He is a sharp defensive mind and relentless recruiter who will be a great addition to our coaching staff."

In 2020, Aristide worked with a defense that ranked No. 9 in FBS in total defense (317.3 yards per game), leading the SEC in that category and ranking No. 4 among Power 5 schools. Texas A&M ended 2020 ranked No. 2 in the country in rushing defense, allowing just 92 yards per game.

Prior to his arrival in College Station, Aristide spent two seasons (2017-18) at Ole Miss. He was a player personnel analyst in 2017 and was promoted to senior player personnel analyst prior to 2018.

Aristide spent one season as defensive graduate assistant at Auburn (2016) before joining the Rebels football staff.

Aristide played collegiately at Purdue, redshirting the 2009 campaign due to injury and earning letters at safety in 2010 and 2011 before converting to wide receiver for the 2012 season, when his career was cut short by injury.

Aristide also ran track for the Boilermakers. A three-time Big Ten academic all-conference honoree, Aristide finished as runner-up for Purdue student body president in the 2012 election and served as president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes his senior year.

A Miami native and a graduate of Maynard Evans High in Orlando, Aristide earned his bachelor's degree from Purdue in 2013 in technology leadership and innovation. Aristide worked for Deloitte Consulting in Atlanta from 2013-16 before joining the Auburn coaching staff. His father, Wallace, is the principal at Miami Northwestern Senior High School.

Stephen Field is entering his third season as tight ends coach, having joined the Miami Hurricanes staff in January 2020.

Field joined Manny Diaz's staff prior to the 2019 season after spending the 2018 season with the Oregon Ducks.

Under Field's watch, tight end Brevin Jordan enjoyed an impressive final year for the Hurricanes, finishing with 38 catches, 576 yards and seven touchdowns before his selection in the fifth round by the NFL's Houston Texans. Jordan earned All-ACC Second Team honors in his junior year. In Field's second season in Coral Gables, the Hurricanes moved up to No. 32 in FBS in total offense, No. 29 in passing offense, No. 26 in scoring offense, No. 17 in red zone offense and No. 20 in first downs gained offense.

In his first season at The U, Field helped guide Jordan to a dominant offensive season. Despite missing three games to injury, Jordan was named one of three finalists for the John Mackey Award, honoring the nation's tight end.

Field spent the 2018 season as the director of recruiting at Oregon, where he helped the Ducks land the top-ranked class in school history. Oregon's 2019 class was ranked first in the Pacific-12 Conference and ninth nationally by 247 Sports.

In 2017, Field served as Louisville's Director of High School Relations and NFL Liaison, helping the Cardinals sign 19 student-athletes during the initial early signing period, eight of which enrolled in January. The 2018 signing class featured a school-best 11 four-star recruits and a pair of Under Armour All-Americans.

Field came to Louisville after serving one season as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Florida A&M. Prior to joining the staff at FAMU, Field was a highly decorated head football coach and offensive coordinator at North Marion Senior High in 2014-15. Field was named the 2015 Florida Athletic Coaches Association (FACA) Coach of the Year, guiding North Marion to the regional quarterfinals, after his squad led the county in passing, rushing and scoring.

Prior to his stint at North Marion, Field served as head coach and offensive coordinator at Miami Northwestern High (2012-14), where he restored the perennial prep power to prominence, guiding them to a regional appearance in his first season. During his tenure at Northwestern, 46 players earned scholarships, including future Hurricanes and Pittsburgh Steelers cornerback Artie Burns.

Field coached running backs for three seasons at Hampton University (2009-11), in addition to serving as recruiting coordinator, run game coordinator and director of operations. Before his stint at Hampton, Field coached two years at UM (2007-08) on the defensive side of the ball, working with future NFL draft picks like Kenny Phillips, Tavares Gooden, Sean Spence, Darryl Sharpton, Brandon Harris and Allen Bailey.

In 2005-06, Field was the offensive run game coordinator, running backs coach and academic coach at Glades Central High in Belle Glade, Fla.While at Glades Central, he coached back-to-back 1,000 yard rushers in Aston Samuels and Damien Berry.

Field also spent a season at Deerfield Beach High, where he coached 1,000-yard rusher Roderick Ferguson, and four years at Miami Central High. Field was a two-time all-state selection at Palm Beach Lakes High, helping them to the only undefeated season in school history.

A native of West Palm Beach, Fla., Field has a daughter, Le'ah Skye Field.

Eric Hickson is entering his third season as running backs coach, having joined the Miami Hurricanes staff in January 2019.

Under his watch in 2020, the Hurricanes featured three impressive running backs, including veteran Cam'Ron Harris, who averaged 5.1 yards per carry and scored 10 touchdowns in his first year as a starter. In his second season at The U, the Hurricanes moved up to No. 32 in FBS in total offense, No. 29 in passing offense, No. 26 in scoring offense, No. 17 in red zone offense and No. 20 in first downs gained offense.

In his first season in Coral Gables, Hickson helped all three of the Hurricanes' primary running backs to career-high rushing totals. Among Miami's top performers on offense, DeeJay Dallas averaged six yards per rush and scored eight rushing touchdowns despite missing three games to injury and Cam'Ron Harris finished with 576 rushing yards despite making just three starts.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Hickson came to UM after spending the 2018 season as running backs coach at his alma mater Kansas State.

In 2018, Hickson helped Wildcats junior running back Alex Barnes lead the Big 12 with 1,355 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns. Overall, Kansas State ranked third in the conference in rushing, averaging 182.6 yards per game.

Prior to his one-year coaching stint in Manhattan, Hickson spent three seasons as the running backs coach at Akron, where he helped the Zips earn a pair of bowl berths.

During the 2017 season, Hickson helped piece together a backfield that saw four different starters combine for 1,282 yards and 12 touchdowns, while the position combined for another 1,000-yard season in 2016. Hickson tutored Conor Hundley during his senior campaign of 2015 as he left the program with over 2,000 career rushing yards to rank 11th in school history.

In 2015, Akron running back Conor Hundley led the Zips, rushing for 911 yards and 10 touchdowns on 202 carries.

Hickson joined the Zips after serving as the interim head coach, running backs coach and outgoing recruiting coordinator at Garden City (KS) Community College in 2014. Prior to joining the Broncbusters, Hickson coached at Emmerich Manual High School in Indianapolis for two seasons, serving as the head coach his last year. He launched his coaching career in the high school ranks in South Florida, first as assistant head coach at Coral Springs Charter School (2003-06) and then as running backs and special teams coach at American Heritage (2007-11).

The all-time leading rusher in Kansas State football history with 2,537 yards on 507 carries upon graduation, Hickson also set career records with 507 carries and 26 rushing touchdowns while posting 10 performances of 100-yards in his 42-game collegiate career. A three-year starter and four-time letterwinner for the Wildcats, he was the season's leading rusher in 1995, 1997, and 1998. He was named All-Big 8 as a sophomore and was a two-time All-Big 12 Conference selection.

Hickson signed with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as an undrafted free agent in 1999. In 2001, Hickson played for the XFL's Birmingham Thunderbolts. He spent the 2002 season in the Arena Football League.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Hickson earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Kansas State in 1998.

GARIN JUSTICE

Offensive Line | Second Season at Miami (16th Overall)

JUSTICE FILE
Hometown: Gilbert, W.V.
College: West Virginia, 2006
Birthdate: March 10, 1982
Wife: Casie
Children: Juliet

Coaching Career

2020-21	Miami Offensive Line
2019	UNLV Offensive Coordinator / Offensive Line
2018	UNLV Run Game Coordinator / Offensive Line
2017	Arizona Offensive Line
2016-17	FAU Offensive Line
2011-15	Concord (W. Va.) Head Coach
2009-10	Concord (W. Va.) Offensive Line / Strength & Conditioning
2007-08	Florida State Graduate Assistant
2006-07	West Virginia Graduate Assistant

Garin Justice is entering his second season as the Miami Hurricanes' offensive line coach in 2021.

Justice, who spent the 2019 season as offensive coordinator / offensive line coach at UNLV, joined the Hurricanes prior to the 2020 season.

In his first season at The U, the Hurricanes jumped to No. 32 in FBS in total offense (from No. 98), No. 29 in passing offense (from No. 52), No. 26 in scoring offense (from No. 90), No. 17 in red zone offense (from No. 122) and No. 20 in first downs gained offense (from No. 84).

Prior to his arrival in Coral Gables, Justice spent two seasons on the UNLV staff, joining the Rebels prior to 2018 and initially oversaw the offensive line and run game. He was promoted to offensive coordinator / offensive line coach prior to 2019. In his final season with the Rebels, two offensive linemen (Julio Garcia, Justin Polu) earned All-Mountain West Conference recognition while running back Charles Williams, Jr., was named first-team All-Mountain West.

Prior to his time at UNLV, Justice spent two seasons as offensive line coach at FAU (2016-17), the only assistant retained when Lane Kiffin was hired as head coach. In 2017, FAU was led by a veteran line under Justice's tutelage. The Owls ended the regular season ranked in the top 10 nationally for scoring offense (40.6) and rushing offense (285.3), while ranking 12th for fewest sacks allowed (16). The Owls finished the 2017 season with an 11-3 record that included a Conference USA championship and Boca Raton Bowl victory. Three of Justice's offensive lineman were named first-team All-Conference USA, helping pave the way for running back Devin Singletary, who became the program's first-ever Associated Press All-American football player and set the school single-season rushing record (1,920 yards).

In 2016, the Owls had a record-setting rushing attack under Justice despite losing four projected starters in the first three weeks of the season, which resulted in nine different starting line groups throughout the year.

Prior to his time at FAU, Justice was the head coach at Concord University (Athens, W. Va.), a program that had been winless (0-11) as recently as 2008, from 2011-15. In his five-year stint, the Mountain Lions were 40-17, which included a 13-1 season in 2014. Additionally, Justice led Concord to two conference championships and two NCAA Division II playoff appearances. On Justice's watch, 84 players were named All-West Virginia Athletic Conference or All-Mountain East Conference selections while two athletes earned Defensive WVIAC Player of the Year accolades in addition to 18 All-Region selections and eight All-American honorees.

Justice was a three-year starting offensive tackle for West Virginia and served as team captain in 2005 for a Mountaineer squad that went 11-1, defeated Georgia in the Sugar Bowl and ranked No. 5 in the season-ending AP Poll. The former second team All-America earned his bachelor's degree from the school in 2006.

Justice began his coaching career as a student assistant and then a graduate assistant for his alma mater, where he worked with the offensive line. He then spent two years as an offensive graduate student at Florida State in 2007-08.

Justice has a Regents Bachelor of Arts degree from West Virginia (2006) and a Master's of Sports Administration from Florida State (2008). He is married to Casie Coughlin Justice, and they have a daughter, Juliet.

Rob Likens is entering his first season as the Miami Hurricanes' wide receivers coach in 2020.

Over his 28-year coaching career Likens has been an offensive coordinator at four schools, including the past two seasons at Arizona State, where he was also the quarterbacks coach.

In 2019, the Sun Devils started a true freshman quarterback, Jayden Daniels, for the first time in school history. Daniels threw for 2,943 yards with 17 touchdowns and just two interceptions, eclipsing the 300-yard passing mark on five occasions. He threw for a season-high 408 yards in ASU's 31-28 upset over sixth-ranked Oregon. Running back Eno Benjamin rushed for 1,083 yards and 10 touchdowns as a junior, finishing his career with 15 100-yard rushing games. Wide receiver Brandon Aiyuk caught 65 passes for 1,192 yards and eight touchdowns, ranking second nationally in yards after catch (10.9).

In 2018, ASU was the only Power 5 program to boast a 3,000-yard passer (Manny Wilkins), 1,500-yard rusher (Benjamin) and 1,000-yard receiver (N'Keal Harry). Likens spent the 2017 season as the Sun Devils' wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator. ASU had the 10th highest-graded passing attack in the nation according to Pro Football Focus.

Likens arrived in Tempe after two seasons as the offensive coordinator at Kansas. He spent the 2013 and 2014 seasons at California as assistant head coach and outside receivers coach, adding the title of passing game coordinator his second season.

In 2014, Likens' passing game, led by future NFL top overall draft pick Jared Goff, ranked sixth in the NCAA in passing yards per game (346) and broke the school's single-season passing yardage record with 4,152 yards. Additionally, three of Cal's top four receivers were Biletnikoff Award candidates in Chris Harper, Kenny Lawler and Bryce Treggs.

Before heading to Cal, Likens served as an assistant head coach and wide receivers coach at Louisiana Tech from 2010-12, including a final campaign in which the Bulldogs posted a 9-3 record and led the nation in scoring offense and total offense by averaging 51.5 points and 577.9 yards per game. Tech scored more than 40 points in 11 of 12 games and more than 50 points on eight occasions. Wide receiver Quinton Patton was a second-team AP All-American and Biletnikoff Award semifinalist in 2012, pacing the Western Athletic Conference in receiving yards per game (116) and receptions per game (8.6), ranking fourth and fifth in the nation in those categories.

Prior to his stint in Ruston, Likens was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Central Connecticut State from 2006 to 2009, helping lead the Blue Devils to more wins than in any other four-year period in school history. CCSU had winning records during each of Likens' four seasons, capped off with a 9-3 mark in 2009 that included a Northeast Conference title. Under Likens' guidance, the Blue Devils led the conference in scoring offense two times, had three undefeated home records and averaged just under 30 points per game in four seasons (29.1).

Prior to joining Central Connecticut State, Likens spent two seasons as the offensive coordinator at Southeast Missouri State (2004-05), where he also worked specifically with the team's quarterbacks and wide receivers. He spent six campaigns at both Temple (1998-2003) as the wide receivers coach and North Alabama (1992-97),

Likens played wide receiver at Mississippi State, earning his bachelor's degree and graduating cum laude in 1990 in math education. He earned his master's degree in math education from North Alabama in 1995. Likens and his wife, Soni, have one son, Cutter.

TRAVARIS ROBINSON

2021	Miami Defensive Backs
2016-20	South Carolina Defensive Coordinator / Defensive Backs
2015	Auburn Defensive Backs
2011-14	Florida Defensive Backs
2010	Texas Tech Defensive Backs
2009	Southern Miss Cornerbacks
2008	Western Kentucky Defensive Backs
2006-07	Auburn Graduate Assistant / Defense

Travaris Robinson, who spent the past five seasons as defensive coordinator / defensive backs coach at South Carolina, is entering his first season as Miami Hurricanes' defensive backs coach in 2021.

Last season Robinson mentored defensive lineman Kingsley Enagbare, a first-team All-SEC selection, and defensive back Jaycee Horn, a second-team All-SEC pick. In 2019, the South Carolina defense – led by first-team All-American defensive tackle Javon Kinlaw – held its opponents to 20 points or less in five games. Sophomore cornerback Israel Mukuamu earned second-team All-SEC honors, while Jammie Robinson and Zacch Pickens earned SEC All-Freshman accolades for the Gamecocks in 2019.

In 2017 South Carolina led the SEC and ranked ninth in the country with 28 turnovers forced, while ranking 25th in points allowed per game at 20.7. The Gamecocks held 11 of 13 opponents to fewer points than their season average.

Robinson spent five seasons coaching defensive backs before arriving in Columbia, S.C. as defensive coordinator – first at Florida (2011-14), then at Auburn (2015). The former Auburn Tiger standout began his coaching career at his alma mater, first as a staff assistant in 2006 while finishing up his undergraduate degree, then as a GA in 2007.

Robinson spent one season each as a defensive backs coach at Western Kentucky (2008), Southern Miss (2009) and Texas Tech (2010) before joining the Florida staff. In his first season at Florida in 2011, Robinson guided a UF secondary that ranked seventh in the nation in pass defense (166.8), while the Gator defense ranked eighth nationally in total defense (299.5).

Robinson led a secondary that was one of the best in the nation in 2012, ranking No. 2 in pass efficiency defense (95.55) and allowing just seven touchdown passes – the second-fewest in the nation. Florida had 20 interceptions on the season, good for seventh nationally while safety Matt Elam was a first-team All-America selection and first-round draft pick. In 2013, Robinson's secondary was seventh nationally in passing defense and eighth in passing efficiency defense, while the defensive unit was eight in total defense. Under Robinson, Vernon Hargreaves III was a freshman All-SEC and freshman All-America pick while being named the National Freshman Defensive Player of the Year by College Football News.

In 2014 at Florida, Robinson again tutored Hargreaves III, who was a first-team All-SEC pick and named first-team All-America. Jalen Tabor received freshman All-America and freshman All-SEC honors.

At Texas Tech, he helped the Red Raiders to an 8-5 record and a Ticket-City Bowl victory over Northwestern. In his one season at Tech, Robinson had two defensive backs earn All-Big 12 Honorable Mention recognition.

His 2009 Southern Miss squad finished in the top four in Conference USA in pass efficiency defense, interceptions and yards per pass attempt, and he coached First Team All-C-USA selection Eddie Hicks.

Before embarking on his coaching career, Robinson played two seasons in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.five picks. Robinson was born in Miami and attended Coral Park High where he was a four-year letterman and earned all-state honors as a defensive back and wide receiver. He received his bachelor's degree in mass communications from Auburn in 2007.

Robinson is married to the former Mandisa Skyers; their family includes sons, Tyson Jerod and Travis Jerod, and daughter, Jordyn.

BOB SHOOP

QUALITY CONTROL ANALYST / DEFENSE

MIAMI (2017)

Bob Shoop is entering his first season as defensive quality control analyst for the Miami Hurricanes.

Shoop, a 32-year college coaching veteran, is the former head coach at Columbia and has served as defensive coordinator at three Power 5 programs. He most recently coached safeties at Michigan.

Shoop spent the 2020 season in Ann Arbor after two seasons as defensive coordinator at Mississippi State. He also served as the defensive coordinator at William & Mary (2007-10), Vanderbilt (2011-13), Penn State (2014-15) and Tennessee (2016-17).

In 2019, Mississippi State's defense led the SEC with 14 fumble recoveries (fourth nationally) and picked off 10 passes to rank second in the conference in turnovers (24). In 2018, Shoop was a Broyles Award finalist and was named FootballScoop Defensive Coordinator of the Year as the Bulldogs were the only defense FBS to finish top-10 in all four major defensive categories (total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, and passing defense). MSU allowed only 12 touchdowns all season, the fewest allowed by any FBS team since 2011.

Shoop helped produce three 2019 first-round NFL Draft picks in Jeffrey Simmons (19th), Montez Sweat (26th) and Johnathan Abram (30th). Over his last 12 seasons, he has coached 20 NFL Draft picks with four at MSU, five at Tennessee, five at Penn State, three at Vanderbilt and three at William & Mary.

In 2014 at Penn State Shoop was named 247Sports' Defensive Coordinator of the Year. He was FootballScoop's FCS Defensive Coordinator of the Year and a Broyles Award finalist in 2009 while at William and Mary.

Shoop was the head coach at Columbia from 2003-05, posting a 7-23 record. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Yale, in 1989 as a graduate assistant. He also has spent time as an assistant coach at Massachusetts (2006), Boston College (1999-2002), Army (1998), Villanova (1997), Yale (1989, 1994-96), Northeastern (1991-93) and Virginia (1990).

Shoop played wide receiver at Yale where he earned his bachelor's degree in economics. He was recognized with Yale Football's prestigious Robert Gardner Anderson Memorial Award for team spirit, dedication and leadership. He also earned four letters in baseball.

Shoop was a three-sport standout at Riverview (PA) High School and is a member of the Allegheny-Kiski Valley Sports Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Maura, have two sons, Tyler and Jay.

ED REED
CHIEF OF STAFF
MIAMI (2001)

College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Ed Reed is entering his second season as the Miami Hurricanes' Chief of Staff in 2021.

As Chief of Staff, Reed will serve in an advisory role to head coach Manny Diaz in all aspects of the football program, including strategic planning, quality control, operations, player evaluation and player development. Reed will also provide assistance in team building, student-athlete mentorship and recruiting, as permissible under NCAA rules.

"We are thrilled to welcome Ed back to Coral Gables," Diaz said upon his hiring. "He is not only one of the most decorated players in Miami football history but also a devoted Cane who cares deeply about this program. All of our players, coaches and staff will be fortunate to tap into his experience, knowledge and passion on a regular basis."

Reed, a native of Destrahan, Louisiana, played strong safety for the Hurricanes from 1997-2001. He was a consensus first-team All-America in 2000 and 2001, helping UM post a 23-1 record over his last two seasons, which culminated with the 2001 national championship. He led the nation that season with nine interceptions and was named the 2001 Co-BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year. He was also a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award and a semifinalist for the Bronco Nagurski Award. Last month, Reed was selected as the second-team safety on the ESPN College Football 150 All-Time All-American Team.

Reed set Miami school records for career interceptions (21) and interception return yards (369). He also competed for the Hurricanes' track and field program, capturing the BIG EAST javelin title in 1999. Reed graduated from UM in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in liberal arts.

Reed was a first-round draft pick of the Baltimore Ravens in 2002, selected 24th overall. He played 11 seasons for the Ravens before finishing his career with the Houston Texans and New York Jets in 2013.

While in Baltimore, Reed earned nine Pro Bowl berths and was named All-Pro six times. He was the 2004 NFL Defensive Player of the Year and the Ravens' Ed Block Courage Award winner in 2008. Baltimore reached three AFC Championship Games during Reed's tenure and in 2012 he helped the Ravens defeat the San Francisco 49ers, 34-31 in Super Bowl XLVII.

Reed ended his NFL career with 643 total tackles, 64 interceptions, seven interception returns for touchdowns, six sacks, 13 fumble recoveries and 139 passes defensed. He holds the Ravens' franchise records for career interceptions (61), interception return yards (1,541), interceptions returned for touchdowns (7) and passes defensed (135). He holds NFL records for longest interception return (107 yards), career interception return yards (1,590) and career multi-interception games (12). Reed is tied for most career playoff interceptions (9) and most blocked punts returned for touchdowns (3) in NFL history.

He was later named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 2000s and the NFL's 100th Anniversary Team. In 2016 he served as an assistant defensive backs coach for the Buffalo Bills.

Reed was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2018 and the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2019, joining Ted Hendricks as the only two Hurricanes who have been inducted into both Halls of Fame.

JUSTIN WELLS
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
CONNECTICUT (2013)

Justin Wells is entering his first year as director of football operations for the Miami Hurricanes' football staff.

Prior to his current role, Wells spent six years on the Hurricanes' football staff and his third as assistant director of football operations.

In his current capacity, Wells coordinates the day-to-day responsibilities of the football program and oversees the football operations intern program, among other duties. Wells also assists with travel coordination (including hotels, airfare and buses), serves as liaison between Miami Football and the rest of the athletics department, oversees all of the Manny Diaz Football Camps and handles all purchasing for football.

Wells spent the 2015 and 2016 seasons at Miami as a football operations assistant, where he was responsible for assisting with day-to-day operations and coordinating the team's nutrition following practice. During the 2014 season, Wells served as a football operations volunteer with the Hurricanes.

Wells arrived in Coral Gables after a stint with the Arizona Rattlers of the Arena Football League in Phoenix, Ariz. During his time with the Rattlers, Wells worked with football operations, scouting and equipment.

A native of Beacon Falls, Conn., Wells graduated from the University of Connecticut in 2013 with a degree in sport management and a minor in business.

During his time as a student at UConn, Wells worked two years in the Huskies' athletics department, serving as an event operations intern.

JORGE BAEZ
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT / OFFENSE
FIU (2003)

Jorge Baez begins his seventh season with the Miami Hurricanes football program, serving as the director of player development - a role he has held since the 2016 season.

In 2015, Baez held the role of director of on-campus recruiting with the Hurricanes' football program. Baez spent the 2014 season with Miami as the program's assistant director of player personnel. In this capacity, Baez assisted with recruiting and gameday operations.

The Miami native also spent the 2003-05 seasons under head coach Larry Coker. During these three seasons with the Hurricanes, Baez gained valuable experience as he assisted in a variety of capacities and helped Miami make three straight bowl appearances, including the 2003 FedEx Orange Bowl, while the Hurricanes posted a record of 31-7 during that stint.

Prior to joining the Hurricanes staff in 2014, Baez spent the 2013 season as Gulliver Prep's offensive coordinator.

Before arriving at Gulliver Prep, Baez spent two seasons at Southern University in Baton Rouge, La.

During his two-year stint at Southern University, Baez served as the program's passing game co-coordinator and wide receivers coach.

In his first season as the program's wide receiver's coach, Baez made an immediate impact on the performance of the Southern receiving corps as the passing offense ranked No. 28 nationally and No. 1 in the SWAC, averaging 248.0 yards per game.

In his two seasons at Southern, Baez tutored three All-SWAC wide receivers (Mike Berry – 2011, LaQuiton Evans – 2011 and Lee Doss – 2012). In addition, Baez recruited and coached All-American wide receiver and Miami native Willie Quinn.

Before his arrival at Southern, Baez served as the offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Lambuth University in Jackson, Tenn.

Prior to Baez' stop at Lambuth, the energetic coach held stints guiding prospects to successful collegiate and professional careers.In 2009, Baez mentored a pair of record-setting receivers at Ole Miss in Shay Hodge and Dexter McCluster. Hodge and McCluster would eventually go on to earn first-team All-SEC honors. Hodge became the first player in Ole Miss history to top 1,000 yards receiving (1,135) and led the SEC in both yards and catches (70), while ranking third in the conference with eight TD receptions. He finished as the Ole Miss all-time leader in receiving yards.

A dual-purpose threat, McCluster became the first SEC player ever with 1,000 yards rushing and 500 yards receiving in the same season. He ended his career No. 2 on the Ole Miss all-time all-purpose yardage list.

In 2008, Baez helped Houston Nutt's Rebels reverse their fortunes, as the team posted a 9-4 record, won the Cotton Bowl and earned a No. 14 final national ranking.

In his second season with the Rebels, Baez mentored a Rebel receiving corps that produced current Miami Dolphins wide receiver Mike Wallace. Wallace entered the NFL after he was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the third round.

Baez coached one season at the prep level before arriving in Oxford. He served as the receivers coach at Miami Palmetto High School in 2006 before holding the same post at Gulliver Prep in spring 2007.

As a player, Baez competed for Upper Iowa University 1998-2000 and later earned a bachelor's degree in 2003 from Florida International University, where he also worked one season with the football staff as a student assistant.

Baez is married to the former Laura Jaca, and the couple has two sons, Robert and Jorge, and a daughter, Chloe.

ANDY VAUGHN

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

NORTH GREENVILLE (2003)

Andy Vaughn joined the Miami Hurricanes football program in March of 2019 and serves as the Hurricanes' director of player personnel. 2021 will mark Vaughn's third season at The U.

Vaughn came to Miami after spending the 2018 season at Arizona, where he was the Wildcats' senior director of recruiting and high school relations. Prior to Arizona, Vaughn spent three years at Nebraska as director of football & recruiting operations, where he was responsible for spearheading all aspects of the Cornhuskers football program related to recruiting.

Vaughn spent three seasons (2012-2014) at Nevada as the Wolf Pack's director of player personnel. He arrived at Nevada after a successful four-year run at Middle Tennessee State, where he was the coordinator of player personal. At MTSU, Vaughn's duties included all NCAA compliance-related activities for the Blue Raider football program, assisting the recruiting coordinator in all phases of the day-to-day planning and execution, and overseeing all football camp activities.

A South Carolina native, Vaughn was on the staff at Clemson, where he served as an assistant for football operations, assisting in administrative operations, travel logistics, recruiting, and community relations. Vaughn also developed a high school relations program for the Tigers while serving as the team liaison for the 2005 Champs Sports Bowl.

Vaughn was also a member of the Clemson staff in 2003 as a recruiting assistant. During both tenures at Clemson, Vaughn helped the Tigers land nationally ranked top-25 recruiting classes.

Prior to joining the Clemson staff, Vaughn was a letterwinner at North Greenville University, where he played on the first bowl team in school history.

Vaughn earned a degree in sports management and business administration from North Greenville University in 2003. He also has a master's degree in physical education and sports administration from Florida State University (2005).

Vaughn and his wife, Jahna, have a son, Brayden, and a daughter, Kennedy.

DAVID COONEY

DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING

FAU (2005)

David Cooney, who has deep roots in the south Florida football community, is in his third season as the Hurricanes' director of recruiting.

Prior to his current role, Cooney spent two seasons as a quality control analyst for the Hurricanes football program, assisting with wide receivers.

Before his arrival to Coral Gables, Cooney served as offensive coordinator for the Miami Southridge Spartans, who won the 2016 8A state championship under his guidance.

DENNIS SLUTAK

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR / FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

FLORIDA STATE (1995)

Dennis Slutak is entering his first season as assistant director of football operations on the Miami Hurricanes' football staff.

Prior to arriving in Coral Gables, Slutak spent time as Director of Football Operations at Washington State. Before his time in Pullman, Slutak spent four seasons as the Director of Football Operations at UNLV. He also served as the Director of Football Operations at Bowling Green in 2013.

Prior to Bowling Green, Slutak spent three seasons at the University of Washington (2009-2011) as the Assistant AD for Football Operations and another four years at the University of Southern California (2005-2008) as the Director of Football Operations.

Prior to taking over the football operations at USC, Slutak coached Special Teams for the Trojans in 2003 and 2004, winning two consecutive National Championships. He's also previously coached at Ole Miss, North Carolina State and Lehigh University, where he won a Patriot League Championship in 1995.

A native of West Palm Beach, Fla., he was a punter at Florida State University, earning his bachelor's degree in education from FSU in 1995 and his master's in athletic administration and management from North Carolina State in 2002. Slutak and his wife, Erin have one son, Landon.

EDWIN PATA

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR / RECRUITING

FLORIDA STATE (2006)

Edwin Pata is in his third season as the Hurricanes' assistant director of recruiting.

A Miami native, Pata spent the previous five seasons as an assistant coach at Florida A&M, coaching the offense line in his sec-ond stint with the Rattlers. Prior to rejoining Florida A&M, Pata spent three seasons (2010-13) on the FIU Panthers staff.

In his first job at FAMU under head coach Joe Taylor (2008-10), Pata was the tight ends coach, producing All-MEAC tight ends Taj Jenkins and Max Purcell. He helped lead the Rattlers to a share of the 2010 MEAC title.

After spending his first year of eligibility playing football at FIU, Pata transferred to Florida State to complete his playing ca-reer as a tight end and undergraduate education.

Pata earned his master's degree from Florida A&M in 2010. He is an alumnus of North Miami High School, where he was an all-state tight end.

In his spare time, he works with the Bryan Pata Foundation, which he started in the name of his brother, a four-year defensive lineman for the Hurricanes who was tragically killed in November 2006. The foundation provides food and services for those in need, in South Florida and Haiti.

MIKE RUMPH

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR / RECRUITING

MIAMI (2002)

Mike Rumph is entering his first season as assistant director of recruiting for the Miami Hurricanes football program in 2021.

Rumph spent the previous five seasons as the Hurricanes' cornerbacks coach.

In 2019, Rumph helped guide a defense that ranked No. 13 nationally in total defense (yards allowed per game) and No. 12 nationally in yards per play allowed. In addition, the Hurricanes ranked No. 4 nationally in tackles for loss, No. 6 in sacks, No. 10 in run defense, No. 16 in red zone defense and No. 18 in pass defense. Cornerback Trajan Bandy earned All-ACC Honorable Mention recognition after starting all 13 games.

The Hurricanes were ranked No. 4 in the nation in total defense in 2018 and were No. 1 in team tackles for loss, passing yards allowed and third down defense.

Under Rumph's guidance, Bandy enjoyed a breakout season in 2018, earning third-team All-ACC honors, while Michael Jackson, Sr., was selected in the fifth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys after another standout year.

Continuing the impressive trends from Rumph's first year on the defensive staff in 2016, the Hurricanes ranked among the nation's leaders in several defensive categories in 2017, including first nationally in team sacks, third nationally in tackles for loss, ninth nationally in opponent yards per play and 15th nationally in passes intercepted

Three members of the Hurricanes secondary earned All-ACC recognition in 2017: Jackson, Sr., (second team), Jaquan Johnson (second team) and Malek Young (honorable mention).

Miami's defensive backfield enjoyed vast improvements under Rumph's guidance in 2016.

Senior defensive back Corn Elder earned ACSMA All-ACC second-team honors and served as one of Miami's top defensive playmakers.

At the conclusion of the 2016 season, Miami was ranked No. 20 nationally in total defense (up from No. 69 the previous season), No. 9 in yards per play (No. 86 in 2015), No. 12 in scoring defense (No. 77 in 2015), No. 5 in tackles for loss (No. 105 in 2015), No. 22 in team sacks (No. 70 in 2015) and tied for No. 8 in defensive touchdowns allowed (No. 61 in 2015).

Rumph, a member of the Hurricanes' 2001 national championship team, returned to his alma mater after spending the previous three seasons as the head coach at American Heritage High School in Plantation, Fla.

During his three seasons as head coach, Rumph guided the Patriots to three straight Florida High School Athletic Association (FHSAA) state playoff appearances and compiled an overall record of 39-6 in one of Florida's most competitive districts.

Rumph wasted little time making his mark on the local high school coaching scene, as his 2013 and 2014 squads claimed 5A FHSAA State Championships, defeating its opponents by a combined score of 104-8 in the final game. American Heritage became just the second school in Broward County history to win back-to-back state football championships.

In 2013 and 2014, Rumph was recognized for his work on the sidelines as he was selected as a coach for the U.S. Army All-American Bowl in San Antonio.

Before taking over as the head coach at American Heritage, Rumph served as the team's defensive coordinator for two seasons.

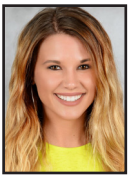
In addition, Rumph served as the boys and girls track and field head coach. In 2011, his boys and girls track and field teams captured the state championship. Following the year, Rumph was named the 2011 Miami Herald Track and Field Coach of the Year.

As a player at the University of Miami, Rumph earned all-conference honors during his junior and senior seasons. As a senior, Rumph finished with 117 tackles and six interceptions as he helped the Hurricanes to the 2001 National Championship.

Following the 2001 campaign, Rumph was selected in the first round of the 2002 NFL Draft with the 27th overall selection by the San Francisco 49ers. He played four seasons in San Francisco before concluding his pro career in 2006 with the Washington Redskins. Rumph and his wife, Veronica, have two children: Jalen and Sienna.



BROOKE WILSON

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR / PLAYER PERSONNEL / RECRUITING OPERATIONS

WESTFIELD STATE (2010)

Brooke Wilson is in her seventh season as the Miami Hurricanes' assistant director of football operations / recruiting relations.

In her role with the team, Wilson assists with day-to-day team operations, team travel, coordinating on-campus recruiting visits and has direct oversight of the team's recruiting assistants.

Prior to her arrival in Coral Gables, Wilson spent two and a half years at Florida Atlantic University where she held the titles of academic advising intern and Interim Director of Football Operations.

While serving as an athletic academic advising intern during the 2012-13 academic season, Wilson mentored 19 at-risk student-athletes. She also facilitated student-athlete academic progress reports and assistant freshman student-athletes with their transition from high school to college.

In addition, Wilson served as a life skills liaison where she coordinated a series of professional development speakers for FAU's 2013 Spring Workshop Series.

Prior to the 2013 season, Wilson transitioned to the FAU football team where she played a key role in all of the team's day-to-day activities, serving as the school's Intercollegiate Athletics Coordinator for Football.

Following the 2013 campaign, Wilson was elevated to the title of Interim Director of Football Operations – a role she held for the entire 2014 season.

During 2014, Wilson organized and implemented all team travel, meals, hotels and gameday operations for over 140 individuals, which included players and team personnel. In addition, Wilson structured and implemented all official and unofficial recruiting visits, while managing FAU head coach Charlie Partridge's daily schedule.

Wilson received her bachelor's degree in communications from Westfield State University in 2010 and her master's degree in counseling in 2012.

While obtaining her master's degree at Bloomsburg University, Wilson served as a graduate assistant in the sports information office.

She also assisted the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee in implementing fundraising and community engagement events, frequently developing content for the SAAC website and athletics page. Wilson – a New England native - resides in Miami.

Prior to UM, she spent 16 years as the Director of Public and Media Relations for the Chicago Bulls. Beyer served as liaison between the Bulls, local, national and international media. She was also responsible for facilitating player and staff interviews, photo shoots and press conferences. In addition, Beyer managed the department's budget, staff and publications and traveled with team to handle public relations for road games. Beyer also spent five seasons as Coordinator of Community Relations for the Chicago Bulls.

A native of South Carolina, she graduated from the University of South Carolina with a B.A. degree in Broadcast Journalism and while at USC, worked three years as a student assistant in the sports information department. She earned a master's degree in Sports Management from the U.S. Sports Academy.

Beyer resides in Miami with her husband David Beyer, who is Director of Basketball Operations for the Miami HEAT. They have twin boys, Jordan & Bryce, and a boxer named Buster.

2021 MEDIA GUIDE

THE BEGINNING

Before competition even took place on a freshman level, plans for a 50,000-seat on campus stadium were proposed in 1926 by the school's first president, Dr. Bowman Ashe. Work began on a temporary, 8,000-seat structure on campus, but one day later, on September 17, 1926, a hurricane leveled much of South Florida, killing more than 130 people, damaging over 10,000 homes and shelving plans for the stadium.

Classes would start late and it wasn't until October 23 that UM played its first game: a 7-0 win over Rollins in front of 304 spectators. The season included two wins over the University of Havana, with a Thanksgiving Day game in Miami and a Christmas Day meeting in Cuba.

The first varsity competition came in 1927 and coach Howard Buck guided the Hurricanes to a 3-6-1 record with a 39-3 win over Rollins in the first game.

MIAMI'S FIRST ROAD VICTORY

J. Burton Rix, who had coached at Texas and SMU, arrived in time for the 1929 season and Miami's first varsity road games. The team traveled via the city's private car, The Spirit of Miami on the Eastern Seaboard Railroad.

MIAMI'S FIRST INTERSECTIONAL GAME

Miami's first intersectional game was an indoor contest against Temple in Atlantic City, N.J. The UM players presented their opponents with coconuts prior to the contest; in return Temple handed Miami a 34-0 defeat. Also that season, the Hurricanes played one of the nation's first night games on October 31, 1930 a game vs. Bowden College in Miami.

FIRST BOWL GAME

UM entered the bowl business, upsetting Manhattan in the Palm Festival on January 1, 1933, at Moore Park in Miami. The next year, UM went 5-0-2 but lost in the Palm Festival to a Duquesne team coached by Elmer Layden (one of the famed Four Horsemen of Notre Dame).

BEGINNING OF THE FAMED ORANGE BOWL

UM played Bucknell on New Year's Day following the 1934 season in the Wooden Bowl. A halftime parade that included an orange-colored bowl was the humble beginning of the famed Orange Bowl extravaganzas produced by Earnie Seiler.

1937-42, 1945-47

THE JACK HARDING ERA

Jack Harding served as both head coach and athletic director in 1937. In nine seasons as head coach (with a two-year break for service in World War II), Harding moved the Hurricanes from the ranks of a small time program into major college status. In 1937 UM also moved into the Roddy Burdine Municipal Stadium (later renamed the Orange Bowl).

HURRICANES' FIRST WIN OVER GATORS

Miami won its first meeting against Florida and that same year captured the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship for the first time.

HURRICANES DURING WWII

Eddie Dunn, a running back out of Pittsburgh, starred for the Hurricanes in the late '30s and took over as head coach for two years (1943-44) during World War II. When Harding returned just prior to the 1945 season, it appeared that UM would suffer through another miserable season after going 1-7-1 in 1944. But enrollment began to swell as hundreds returned from the service. The Canes forged a 9-1-1 record that included one of the most memorable Orange Bowl games in history.

On January 1, 1946, UM and Holy Cross had battled to a 6-6 tie with just a few seconds remaining. Crusader quarterback Gene DeFilippo threw a desperation pass that went in and out of the arms of an open receiver and wound up in the hands of the Hurricanes' Al Hudson. A former Miami Edison High track star, Hudson juggled the ball and sprinted 89 yards for the winning score as time ran out.

1948-63

THE ANDY GUSTAFSON ERA

In 16 seasons, Andy Gustafson's teams went to four bowls and appeared on national television nine times. He developed the "Miami Drive Series", a form of the belly option generally considered the forerunner of the wishbone and coached Al Carapella as UM's first major college All-American (1950). Gustafson's 1950 squad went 9-1-1, defeated Purdue one week after the Boilermakers had broken Notre Dame's unbeaten streak at 39 games and earned an Orange Bowl bid against Clemson.

UM'S FIRST TOP 10 RANKING

A No. 9 ranking by both UP and INS in 1954 marked UM's first Top 10 ranking at the end of the season. In 1956, on the strength of an 8-1-1 mark, the Hurricanes finished sixth in all three wire service polls.

HURRICANES AND INTEGRATION

UM broke a Southern tradition by playing against African-American players in a 14-6 defeat of Iowa in the Orange Bowl. In the late 1950s, UM had won a battle with the city to open seating to African-Americans in the entire Orange Bowl, and on January 31, 1961, the UM trustees voted unanimously to open the door to all students.

FIRST AFRICAN-AMERICAN HURRICANES

In December 1966, the University of Miami signed an African-American athlete, Ray Bellamy, a 6-5, 210-pound wide receiver from Palmetto, Fla., who chose Miami over Florida State, Florida A&M and a number of major colleges in the Midwest. Miami became the second major college in the South with an African-American football player on scholarship, and Bellamy became a standout both on and off the football field. Tom Sullivan, a tailback from Jacksonville, became the second African-American signee in 1968 and was followed one year later by future pro stars Burgess Owens and Chuck Foreman.

THE AGE OF *MIRA*CLES

Key West native George Mira led Miami to a pair of bowl games while twice earning All-America honors in the early 1960s. Nicknamed "The Matador," Mira set nearly every passing record in the school's history, finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting as a senior and tied a national completion record (368) despite UM's 3-7 record.

1964-69

THE CHARLIE TATE ERA

Charlie Tate was tabbed as head man in early 1964 and after two years at .500 under Tate, another star emerged to lead UM to back-to-back bowl games.

HENDRICKS EMERGES

Born in Guatemala and raised in South Florida, Ted Hendricks, nicknamed "The Mad Stork," became one of the most feared pass rushers in college football. He became the school's first and only three-time All-American (1966, 1967 and 1968).

1970-78

CANES FIND THEIR WAY

Five different coaches guided UM from 1970-78, with Walk Kichefski (1970), Fran Curci (1971-72), Pete Elliott (1973-74), Carl Selmer (1975-76) and Lou Saban (1977-78) combining to go 37-61 in nine seasons. Elliott had the most success of the group, going 5-6 in 1973 and 6-5 in 1974. During the 1974 season – one of only two winning seasons for UM in the 1970s – the Canes won road contests at No. 19 Houston and West Virginia, in addition to picking up home victories over Virginia Tech and Syracuse. UM's other winning season of the 1970s came in 1978 when Saban guided UM to 6-5 campaign with road wins at Kansas, at No. 19 Auburn and at Florida to close out the season.

The bad times were eased some when Miami pulled a stunning 14-13 upset of Florida in Gainesville.

FIFTH DOWN PLAY

After three games in 1972, the Hurricanes were winless and playing at home against Tulane when a fifth down play gave Miami a 24-21 win. The Hurricanes had started with a first-and-10 from Tulane's 12-yard line late in the game. After four plays (plus a nullified penalty down), Miami was exiting the field, still trailing 21-17. But the officials called the UM offense back onto the field for another down, which resulted in a 32-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Ed Carney to split end Witt Beckman.

1979-1983

THE HOWARD SCHNELLENBERGER ERA

In January 1979, UM hired Dolphins offensive coordinator Howard Schnellenberger as its eighth head coach since 1963. Schnellenberger installed a pro-style passing attack, and in his first year at the helm UM became known as the "Jet-Lag Kids." The team traveled more than 28,000 miles in 1979, an NCAA record, including trips to the Japan Bowl, San Diego State, Penn State and Syracuse, posting a 5-6 record.

TURNING POINT UNDER SCHNELLENBERGER

A year later, Schnellenberger's Hurricanes went 8-3 and were invited to the Peach Bowl. They posted a 20-10 victory over Virginia Tech to finish 9-3 for the season. That game is cited by many as the turning point in the UM football program. UM went 9-2 in 1981 and 7-4 in 1982, both respectable seasons. Still, nobody knew what was coming next. By Schnellenberger's fifth and last season of 1983, UM had traveled even further - to the national championship of college football. Behind the passing wizardry of freshman quarterback Bernie Kosar, the Hurricanes upset Nebraska 31-30 in the 50th Orange Bowl Classic to cap a storybook 11-1 season and a No. 1 spot in both wire service polls

THE JIMMY JOHNSON ERA

In May 1984, UM athletic director Sam Jankovich plucked Jimmy Johnson away from Oklahoma State. Johnson's first campaign resulted in an 8-5 record, including the "Hail Flutie" loss to Boston College and an appearance in the Fiesta Bowl.

TESTAVERDE BECOMES UM'S FIRST HEISMAN WINNER

In 1986, the 60th year of UM's varsity football history, the Hurricanes fielded what many consider to be one of the best college football teams ever. Led by Miami's first Heisman Trophy winner - Vinny Testaverde - the Hurricanes swept through the regular season with a perfect 11-0 mark. Miami held down the No. 1 national ranking for 15 weeks in the fall of 1986 on the strength of a record-breaking offense and the nation's No. 5 ranked defense, a unit that featured first-team All-Americans Jerome Brown and Bennie Blades.

THREE CANES TAKEN IN FIRST NINE PICKS OF NFL DRAFT

The Hurricanes of 1986 appeared on network TV in eight of their 12 games, and in the spring of 1987, three Hurricanes (Testaverde, Alonzo Highsmith and Jerome Brown) were selected in the first nine picks of the NFL Draft.

SECOND TITLE IN 1987

The Hurricanes firmly established themselves as the "Team of the 1980s" in 1987 by winning the school's second national championship in five years. The season was highlighted by "The Game of the Year," as it was later called, on October 3 in Tallahassee, as No. 3 Miami faced No. 4 Florida State on national television (CBS). Miami overcame a 19-3 deficit behind three Steve Walsh touchdown passes and Bubba McDowell knocked down an FSU two-point conversion attempt to preserve a 26-25 Hurricanes victory.

THE FIRST UNBEATEN SET OF CANES

In the 1988 Orange Bowl, Miami, for the third consecutive season, dealt the powerful Sooners their only defeat of the year, 20-14. Miami completed a 12-0 season, the first undefeated record by a UM varsity team.

BLADES AND STUBBS SHINE

At season's end, safety Bennie Blades, Miami's all-time interceptions leader, was named consensus All-American for the second straight year and in January 1988 he was named co-recipient of the Jim Thorpe Award, which honors the nation's finest defensive back. DE Daniel Stubbs, Miami's all-time sack leader, also closed out his memorable career as a consensus All-American and finished as a finalist for the Outland Trophy.

FIRST TRIP TO THE WHITE HOUSE

On January 29, 1988, the Hurricane players and coaches were honored guests of President Ronald Reagan at the White House, a first for any collegiate athletic team in the state of Florida.

1989-94

THE DENNIS ERICKSON ERA

Dennis Erickson of Washington State was named UM's 18th head coach on March 5, 1989. Erickson earned the distinction of being only the second Division I head coach to win a national title in his first season at a school, leading the Hurricanes to an 11-1 record and the school's third national championship in seven seasons. Truly the "Team of the 1980s", Miami stormed to the crown with a 33-25 win over Alabama in the Sugar Bowl. QB Craig Erickson won Sugar Bowl MVP honors.

The 1990 edition of the Hurricanes went on to set school records in total offense (482.9 yards per game) and in passing yardage (324.8 ypg). A powerful defensive unit anchored by All-Americans Russell Maryland (who went on to become the Hurricanes' first Outland Trophy winner and was the first overall pick in the NFL draft) and Maurice Crum (a Butkus Award finalist) allowed just 79.7 yards per game rushing. Miami finished the season with a 10-2 record and a 46-3 victory over Texas in the Mobil Cotton Bowl (UM's eighth straight New Year's Day Bowl). With its No. 3 final ranking, it became only the second team in college football history to finish No. 1, 2 or 3 for five straight seasons.

MIAMI JOINS THE BIG EAST

Following the 1990 season, Miami officially became a charter member of the BIG EAST Football Conference, joining Boston College, Syracuse, Pittsburgh, Rutgers, Temple, Virginia

Tech and West Virginia.

UNDEFEATED AGAIN

In 1991, Miami went 12-0 for only the second time in its history, winning the AP National Championship, while Washington, which also finished 12-0, was voted National Champion by CNN/USA TODAY (coaches). It was the second title in Dennis Erickson's three years (a feat matched by only one other coach), the third for the school in five years, and fourth in nine.

HUERTA'S RECORD

Kicker Carlos Huerta set an NCAA record with 157 consecutive extra points and set or tied 13 Miami records. He finished with 397 career points, third on the NCAA career list, and was one of five UM first-team All-Americans, joining defensive back Darryl Williams, offensive lineman Leon Searcy, linebacker Darrin Smith and receiver/kick returner Kevin Williams.

WHITE HOUSE AGAIN

The season ended with a third visit to the White House in five years, this time to see President George H.W. Bush, following a convincing 22-0 win over Nebraska in the Federal Express Orange Bowl.

HURRICANE ANDREW STRIKES

The 1992 season saw the Hurricanes face a level of adversity previously unimagined. Just prior to the season, on August 24, South Florida was devastated by Hurricane Andrew causing Erickson, five other coaches and several staff and players' families to move out of their severely damaged homes. The Miami football team was forced to move nearly 200 miles north to Dodgertown in Vero Beach to complete preseason drills before playing the season opener. The 24-7 road victory at Iowa was the first positive symbol for a ravaged Miami community. Head coach Dennis Erickson was named the BIG EAST Coach of the Year, while QB Gino Torretta earned college football's highest individual honor, becoming Miami's second Heisman Trophy winner.

Torretta became the most honored college player in history and was joined by linebackers Micheal Barrow and Darrin Smith and cornerback Ryan McNeil as first-team All-Americans.

NCAA RECORD SET

A 41-17 defeat of Memphis State in the 1993 season finale gave the Canes their 57th consecutive home victory, tying the NCAA record set by Alabama, and sent a senior class to graduation without a loss in the Orange Bowl during their careers.

58 IN A ROW

Miami opened the 1994 campaign by etching its name atop an NCAA record that may never fall. With a 56-0 victory over Georgia Southern, the Hurricanes recorded their 58th consecutive victory in the Orange Bowl, a streak that began in 1985. After posting a road victory at Arizona State, the Canes returned home to face another Pac-10 foe, Washington. The Huskies capitalized on a series of UM miscues early in the third quarter to produce 22 points, and the Miami home win streak ended with a 38-20 defeat.

SAPP WINS LOMBARDI AWARD

Defensive tackle Warren Sapp etched his name among the great defensive linemen in UM history as he was named a consensus All-American and Miami's first Lombardi Award winner in 1994.

1995-2000

THE BUTCH DAVIS ERA

Former UM assistant Butch Davis returned to Coral Gables following six seasons as an assistant coach with the Dallas Cowboys in January of 1995. By mid-October, Miami found itself with a 1-3 record, including a 0-1 mark in conference play, Miami regrouped and reeled off seven straight wins to finish the season with an 8-3 record. Junior middle linebacker Ray Lewis finished second in the balloting for the 1995 Butkus Award and was honored as a first-team All-American by the Associated Press.

3 FOR 300

The 1997 Hurricanes became the first team in the history of the program to put together three consecutive games of rushing for more than 300 yards. Miami accomplished the feat in wins over Boston College, Temple and Arkansas State. In the thrilling, double overtime victory over BC, running back Edgerrin James set what was then a BIG EAST and University of Miami single-game rushing record with 271 yards in the 45-44 win.

BACK TO THE TOP

In 1998, the Hurricanes began their ascent back to the top of college football. A team that featured 71 sophomores and freshmen battled to a BIG EAST Conference title showdown with Syracuse in the conference finale. Miami rebounded from a bitter defeat at Syracuse to ruin UCLA's national title hopes in the regular-season finale. In a game that was originally scheduled to be played in the Orange Bowl on September 26 but was rescheduled for December 5 as Hurricane George set its sights on South Florida, Miami hosted the third-ranked Bruins and their 20-game winning streak. When Cade McNown's "Hail Mary" pass fell through the back of the end zone as time expired, fans stormed the Orange Bowl field to celebrate UM's dramatic 49-45 victory. The Hurricanes had sent notice to the college football world that the program was headed back in the right direction. Miami finished 1998 with a 9-3 mark and a No. 20 final ranking following a 46-23 dismantling of NC State in the Micron PC Bowl at nearby Pro Player Stadium.

BC COMEBACK

The Hurricanes produced the largest comeback in UM history at Boston College in 1999, erasing a 28-0 third quarter deficit to win, 31-28. That win provided UM with momentum as the Canes would win seven of their final eight games, the only loss coming to No. 2 Virginia Tech.

BACK ON TOP

The 2000 Hurricanes tallied big victories over top-ranked Florida State and No. 2 Virginia Tech on their way to being acknowledged nationally as college football's hottest team at season's end, but were not given a chance to play for the national championship. UM laid an impressive 37-20 win on Florida in the Nokia Sugar Bowl to make a case for a fifth championship and setting the stage for another title run in 2001.

2001-06

THE LARRY COKER ERA

Larry Coker was named as UM's 19th head football coach on February 3, 2001. The 2001 season started with Coker facing coaching legend Joe Paterno and the Penn State Nittany Lions. A crowd of 109,313 – the largest ever for a Miami game – watched the Hurricanes open the season with a resounding statement. Miami raced to a 30-0 halftime lead on the way to a 33-7 victory before a national television audience. QB Ken Dorsey orchestrated a 344-yard passing performance and the Hurricanes were stifling on defense in the victory.

"BREAK HISTORY AND MAKE HISTORY"

The Seminoles were riding a 54-game home unbeaten streak (37 straight wins), and had not lost on their home turf since a UM victory in 1991. Miami's mission to "Break History and Make History" was accomplished in spectacular fashion with a 49-27 defeat of the Seminoles. Another national television audience watched the Hurricanes' defense cause six FSU turnovers. Miami scored via offense, defense and special teams en route to one of its largest points total ever against the Seminoles, a victory that returned UM to the top of the rankings.

NO. 5 TAKES THE ROSE

The Rose Bowl hosted the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) title game for the first time. It also marked the first time in 56 years that teams from conferences other than the Pac-10 and Big Ten were competing in the game. Miami left little doubt about which team was college football's best, as it raced to a 34-0 halftime lead behind a huge first-half performance by game co-MVPs Ken Dorsey and Andre Johnson. Dorsey and Johnson connected for two touchdowns and 199 yards in the game with Dorsey throwing for a career-best 362 yards. Portis added another score on a brilliant 39-yard touchdown run and the Hurricanes were able to enjoy the second half of their national title victory. Miami's fifth national title team in 19 years ranked among its most dominating, setting a school and BIG EAST record with 475 points in the regular season. Miami's 37-point outburst in the Rose Bowl gave the team 512 points overall. In BIG EAST games, the 2001 Hurricanes scored 290 points, second to 2000's 310. During the 2001 regular season, UM outscored its opponents by an average margin of 43.2 to 9.4. The total included a 239-33 (21.7-3.0) advantage in the first half and 236-70 (21.5-6.36) mark in the second half. The Hurricanes were especially dominant at home as they outscored their opponents by a staggering 306-17 count.

COKER MAKES HISTORY

Coker became the first rookie head coach to lead his team to a national title since 1948. He earned two national Coach of the Year honors, winning the "Bear" Bryant Award from the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association, and sharing the American Football Coaches' Association honor with Maryland's Ralph Friedgen.

LOPSIDED WIN IN THE SWAMP

The first regular-season meeting between UM and UF in 16 years was a matchup of a pair of teams ranked in the nation's top 10 in 2002. The top-ranked Hurricanes dominated the sixth-ranked Gators with an impressive show of offensive versatility and defensive force in a stunningly easy 41-16 victory. The outcome was the most lopsided UF home loss in more than 20 years. Quarterback

Ken Dorsey threw for four touchdowns, tailback Willis McGahee rushed for 204 yards and the Miami defense created three turnovers.

JUSY SHY OF NO. 6

The Hurricanes had earned a shot at their sixth national title with a berth in the 2003 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, where they would face Ohio State in Tempe, Ariz., and the matchup provided one of college football's most dramatic games. Miami overcame a 17-7 second-half deficit to tie the game when Todd Sievers nailed a 40-yard field goal as time expired. Miami took the lead 24-17 in the first overtime when Dorsey connected with tight end Kellen Winslow for a score. Ohio State responded with a touchdown to send it to a second overtime, a score made possible by a controversial pass interference call in the end zone on a fourth-down play that kept the Buckeyes' drive alive. OSU took a 31-24 lead, a lead they held when Miami's final possession ended on an incompletion from the two-yard line on fourth down.

RALLY AGAINST THE GATORS

Miami opened with Florida in 2004 and fell behind the Gators 33-10 midway through the third quarter. A packed house at the Orange Bowl was in disbelief but the Hurricanes rallied behind the hot hand of quarterback Brock Berlin who compiled one of the most amazing performances in Miami history in the second half. Berlin led Miami to a 38-33 comeback win by completing 19 of his final 21 passes over the game's final 21 minutes, leading four touchdown drives and taking the Hurricanes to the winning score with just over a minute remaining. Miami closed its season in the FedEx Orange Bowl against rival Florida State. A missed FSU field goal attempt in the fourth period continued Miami's roll in the series, as the Hurricanes ended 2003 with a five-game win streak over their rivals from Tallahassee.

Eight Hurricanes earned first-team All-BIG EAST honors in 2003, led by conference Defensive Player of the Year Sean Taylor. Taylor and tight end Kellen Winslow were consensus first-team All-Americans while linebacker Jonathan Vilma was mentioned on several All-America squads and was a finalist for the Butkus Award. Winslow continued Miami's string of award winners as he was named winner of the John Mackey Award as college football's top tight end.

HURRICANES JOIN THE ACC

After having six players selected in the first round of the NFL draft in April, the most ever of any college, the Hurricanes embarked on their first season as members of the Atlantic Coast Conference. UM played on Labor Day night against Florida State in the Orange Bowl in front of a nationally televised ABC audience. However, the arrival of another Hurricane – this one called Hurricane Francis – closed down the campus and delayed the game four days. Devin Hester blocked a late field goal, giving the Hurricanes a chance. Not long after, Brock Berlin led Miami on an 80-yard drive, throwing a 30-yard touchdown pass to Sinorice Moss with 30 seconds remaining. The game went into overtime and Frank Gore scored on an 18-yard run for a 16-10 victory.

2007-10

THE RANDY SHANNON ERA

The Randy Shannon era began on Sept. 1, 2007, with the Hurricanes knocking off Marshall, 31-3, to jumpstart a 2007 season that was a building year for the mighty Hurricanes. One of the two highlight games of the 2007 season occurred on a Thursday night at the Orange Bowl, as a stifling Miami defense wreaked havoc on Texas A&M's triple-option attack, limiting one the nation's top rushing teams to less than 100 yards on the ground. The Hurricanes' offense moved through the air and on the ground as Miami won, 34-17

Miami had a thrilling 37-29 win at instate rival Florida State. The Hurricanes showed the ability to rally late – using a late touchdown pass in the closing minutes and a fumble return to seal the win. UM closed the Orange Bowl with a loss to Virginia. Miami also made Dolphin Stadium its new home when it opened up the 2008 season with a 52-7 win over Charleston Southern. Freshman LB Sean Spence was named ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year. K/P Matt Bosher was given the Jack Harding MVP Award and was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award.

2011-15

THE AL GOLDEN ERA

Al Golden was named the University of Miami's 22nd head football coach in December 2010. From 2010 to 2011, the Canes improved 19-plus spots among the nation's FBS schools in turnover margin (+19), fewest penalties per game (+63) and fewest yards penalized per game (+85).

The Miami defense finished the season ranked No. 21 in the nation in scoring defense and tied for ninth in red zone defense.

In his second season at the helm, Golden led the Hurricanes, which were picked to finish fifth in the ACC Coastal Division, to a 7-5 record and a 5-3 league mark, earning a share of the 2012 ACC Coastal Division title.

MIAMI TOPS GATORS AGAIN

Golden led the Hurricanes to a 9-4 record in 2013 and a berth in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando - Miami's first bowl appearance since 2010. The 2013 season began with a 7-0 start, including a win over No. 12 Florida as the Hurricanes jumped as high as No. 7 in the BCS rankings.

The 2014 campaign saw the emergence of true freshman quarterback Brad Kaaya. In his rookie campaign with the Hurricanes, Kaaya broke several Miami rookie records, including the school standard for passing yards and touchdowns. Kaaya closed the year with 3,198 yards passing, 26 touchdowns and just 12 interceptions en route to being named ACC Rookie of the Year and received Freshman All-America honors. He became just the third Miami signal-caller to surpass 3,000 yards passing in a single season since 2003.

The start of the 2015 season opened on a high note for the Hurricanes as they posted a 3-0 record for the 17th time in the previous 60 years. Miami would then go on to drop three of its next four games and fell to 4-3 on the year, which led to the dismissal of Golden.

Assistant coach Larry Scott took over head coaching duties on Oct. 25 and would go on to lead the Canes to a 4-1 record over the final five games of the season and helped Miami to an appearance in the Hyundai Sun Bowl.Following the year, defensive backs Artie Burns (Pittsburgh Steelers) and Deon Bush (Chicago Bears) were picked in the first and fourth rounds of the draft.

2015 - 2018

THE MARK RICHT ERA

A new era in Miami Hurricanes football began on Dec. 4, 2015 as Director of Athletics Blake James named Mark Richt as the 24th head coach in program history.

Richt, a 1982 Miami alum, returned home to South Florida following a 15-year career at Georgia where he compiled a 145-51 overall record and an 85-40 mark in Southeastern Conference play.

CANES WIN BOWL DEBUT UNDER RICHT

In his first season at Miami, Richt guided the Hurricanes to an impressive 9-4 record. Miami finished tied for second in the ACC Coastal, won its final five games and won its first bowl game in 10 years, defeating West Virginia 31-14 in the Russell Athletic Bowl in Orlando, Fla. The Hurricanes finished 20th in the final AP Top 25 rankings and 23rd in the final Amway Coaches Poll, their first season-ending rankings since 2009.

Nine Hurricanes were selected in the 2017 NFL Draft, the most since 2006, including first-round selection David Njoku to the Browns.

Richt helped the Hurricanes improve upon his debut season and then some in 2017 - a year where Miami's "turnover chain" took over college football.

CHARLOTTE-BOUND FOR THE FIRST TIME IN HISTORY

The Hurricanes won 10 games in 2017, climbing as high as second in the College Football Playoff rankings. Miami captured the Atlantic Coast Conference's Coastal Division for the first time in its history and earned an invitation to the Capital One Orange Bowl for the first time in 13 years. Richt won 2017 ACC Coach of the Year honors and was also named the 2017 Walter Camp Coach of the Year. The Hurricanes, who won 10 straight games to open the season, extended their winning streak to 15 straight games dating to 2016 - their longest since 2002.

In the process, Miami ended a seven-game losing streak to Florida State with a last-second win in Tallahassee. The Hurricanes also defeated No. 13 Virginia Tech and No. 3 Notre Dame in back-to-back, nationally televised, prime time telecasts at Hard Rock Stadium. ESPN's College GameDay made its first visit to Coral Gables for the win over the Irish, which was Miami's highest win over a ranked opponent since defeating third-ranked Virginia Tech in 2005.

Richt led the Hurricanes to the New Era Pinstripe Bowl in 2018, successfully knocking off ACC rivals Florida State and Virginia Tech for the second straight season. He announced his retirement as head coach after Miami's trip to New York City for the Pinstripe Bowl.

"The University of Miami has been a part of my life for more than three decades," Richt shared in an official statement. "It shaped me as a young man and provided me with the coaching opportunity of a lifetime. My love for The U is simply great."

2019 - PRESENT

THE MANNY DIAZ ERA

Manny Diaz, who has deep roots in the Miami community and catapulted the Hurricane's defense to elite status during his three years as the team's defensive coordinator from 2016-2018, was announced as the 25th head coach of the University of Miami football program on Sun., Dec. 30.

"Manny is one of the nation's elite coaches and the Canes Family has already embraced him and his incredible work ethic over the past three years," said UM Director of Athletics Blake James upon his hiring. "He is absolutely the passionate and innovative leader that our program needs, and we will work together to build an incredible staff to move our program back into championship contention."

Diaz, who has an impressive resume during nearly two decades as a defensive specialist coaching several collegiate programs, accepted his dream job of leading a Hurricanes team he believes is destined to return to the top echelon of collegiate football in the years to come.

During the 2020 season, Diaz led Miami to an 8-3 overall record, including a 7-2 mark in Atlantic Coast Conference play, and an appearance in the Cheez-It Bowl. Miami won seven games in ACC play for the second time with Diaz on staff (2017) and the third time overall. Jaelan Phillips and Gregory Rousseau became first-round picks in the 2021 NFL Draft, while Jose Borregales won the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker.

1983 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

THE MIRACLE IN MIAMI

Less than a decade removed from a period of uncertainty in which there was open talk of dropping the football program, the University of Miami Hurricanes stunned the college football world by defeating the top-ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers, 31-30, in the 1984 Orange Bowl Classic on Jan. 1, 1984.

The victory was monumental — for UM football and for college football in general. It was monumental not only because the Cornhuskers were widely considered to be among the most powerful teams in college football history, but it also heralded the dawn of a new dynasty in the sport from a program that had been all but dead just a few short years earlier. That victory — combined with losses by second-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl and Illinois in the Rose Bowl — vaulted the Hurricanes into the top spot in the final national rankings.

This was the first national title team without a single player making an All-America first team voted by AP, UPI, the Football Writers Association or the College Football Coaches Association.

One of the keys was a melting pot offensive line — a Canadian (center Ian Sinclair), a Cuban-American (guard Juan Comendeiro), an African-American (guard Alvin Ward), an Italian-American (tackle Paul Bertucelli) and an Irish-American (tackle Dave Heffernan).

Miami was only the second national title team to gain more passing yards than rushing yards.

"It's a tribute to a lot of gutty players and a real team effort," head coach Howard Schnellenberger said. "We've got a lot of overachievers on our team — or else there has been a poor job of selection done by the All-American selectors."

1987 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

DOMINANCE FROM START TO FINISH

The Hurricanes were supposed to be rebuilding. Reloading was more accurate. This Miami team was supposed be the lull before the storm of 1988 and 1989. After all, the Hurricanes had lost five starters on offense from a team that had come within a whisper of a national title in 1985 and a 1986 squad that was considered among the best ever, only to lose its title shot in the Fiesta Bowl.

But this team was more offensively balanced than the previous season's juggernaut and, with nine starters returning to an underrated defense, the Hurricanes were a more well-rounded team altogether. Ranked 10th in the preseason Associated Press rankings, this team quickly showed it would be better than advertised.

Miami ripped rival Florida in the season opener, then embarrassed Arkansas on the Razorbacks' home field. The season's third game was a classic. Being dominated by fourth-ranked Florida State, 19-3, late in the third quarter, Miami launched one of its greatest comebacks. The Hurricanes scored three lightning-quick touchdowns: a 49-yard bomb from Steve Walsh to Melvin Bratton, a 26-yarder from Walsh to Michael Irvin (plus a two-point conversion to tie it at 19), then a 73-yard strike from Walsh to Irvin for the lead with 2:22 remaining. Miami would have to stop an FSU two-pointer to hold for a 26-25 victory.

There seemed to be no stopping these Hurricanes after that. Miami rolled through the remainder of the regular season, blanking 10th-ranked Notre Dame (24-0) and surviving a scare from eighth-ranked South Carolina (20-16) to set up a matchup with top-ranked Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl Classic on New Year's Day.

The Hurricanes bottled up OU's wishbone attack, holding the Sooners to just 179 yards on the ground (OU came in averaging 428.8). Elation for Miami was frustration for OU — the Sooners' only three losses over the last three seasons had come to the Hurricanes.

"We played our way to this championship. We have the best record versus anybody in the country . . . We beat Oklahoma three in a row, Florida State and Notre Dame three in a row, Florida a couple . . . What is sweetest is that we did it as a team. We lost starters and had other guys come in and played magnificently."

- Jimmy Johnson, head coach

1989 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

TWO ERICKSONS AND A TENACIOUS 'D'

By the time head coach Dennis Erickson arrived in Coral Gables to take over the UM football program prior to the 1989 season, Miami football had established itself as the "Team of the '80s". With a new coaching staff in place, Miami switched to a one-back offense, but the Hurricanes remained in their trademark 4-3 defense and had the talent on both sides of the ball to maintain their level of excellence. Twelve starters returned, but the loss of quarterback Steve Walsh, running back Cleveland Gary, linebacker Randy Shannon and cornerback Bubba McDowell would be felt. Nonetheless, the Hurricanes reloaded and ran off six victories to start the season.

Quarterback Craig Erickson was lost for three games in the middle of the season — including a 24-10 loss at Florida State — before returning and leading the Hurricanes on an impressive stretch run.

Miami's defense didn't allow a touchdown for one 10-quarter stretch during the regular season, held six opponents without a touchdown and allowed just 9.3 points per game. Miami rebounded from the FSU loss to whip their remaining opponents by an average margin of 18 points, including a 27-10 trouncing of defending national champion and top-ranked Notre Dame (27-10), ending the Irish's 23-game win streak (the seventh season in a row in which UM had defeated a No. 1-ranked team). That victory clinched a Sugar Bowl berth against seventh-ranked Alabama. Miami dispatched Alabama by a deceptively close 33-25 score in New Orleans and moved into the top spot of the rankings when Notre Dame knocked off top-ranked Colorado in the Orange Bowl, giving the Hurricanes their third national title in seven seasons.

1991 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

GINO, THE RUTHLESS POSSE AND WIDE RIGHT I

A combustible offense, a rock-solid defense and the nation's best special teams — by 1991 all these traits had become synonymous with Miami football and this team represented the zenith of its era. Quarterback Gino Torretta, a group of skill players nicknamed "The Ruthless Posse," and a linebacker corps that ranks among the greatest ever assembled, led these Hurricanes.

Miami started the season by ripping Arkansas on the road and dominating a Houston offense that had terrorized opponents for four seasons up to that game. Their first stiff challenge came against Penn State on Oct. 12 and the Hurricanes, behind staunch defense and big plays by Horace Copeland (80-yard scoring catch) and Kevin Williams (91-yard punt return for a TD) held off the Nittany Lions.

Two challenges in November punctuated the season. First was the annual grudge match in Tallahassee, Fla., against Florida State. In what became known as "Wide Right I" the Hurricanes erased a 16-7 deficit in the final period on a 45-yard field goal by Carlos Huerta and a one-yard run by Larry Jones with 3:01 left to take a 17-16 lead. FSU marched down for a potential game-winning field goal in the closing seconds, but Gerry Thomas' 34-yard attempt was wide right.

Miami escaped another close call a week later, slipping by Boston College on the road. The Hurricanes defense held off a late BC drive in the final seconds to preserve the 19-14 victory. A blowout of San Diego State clinched an Orange Bowl berth.

With their fourth national title in their sights, the Hurricanes stymied the Huskers' offense as few had, limiting the Nebraska ground game to just 82 rushing yards and throwing a shutout of the Big Eight Conference champions.

The victory gave Miami the national title in the Associated Press rankings. The Hurricanes shared overall national honors with Rose Bowl champ Washington, which nudged ahead in the coaches' poll.

"To win one national championship is amazing. For guys to win their second in three years, that hasn't been accomplished by many. That's what makes this championship special. And it came in a situation where we had not been picked to be that good. Some people said we'd be No. 3 in the state of Florida."

— Dennis Erickson, Miami head coach

2001 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

CHARACTER, CLASS, POISE = CHAMPIONSHIP

The Hurricanes' fifth national championship may have been the program's most rewarding. A veteran senior class that had endured the shame of a losing season in 1997 and had rebuilt the program — inside and out — led this team. Miami returned to the top in 2001 by showing character, class and poise.

How good was this team? Many argue it may have been the greatest college football team ever assembled. This team beat opponents by the largest average margin in UM history (33.2 points per game), produced the biggest two-game whippings of any pair of ranked teams in history by defeating Syracuse and Washington by a combined 124-7, set a new UM record for scoring and featured a defense that scored eight touchdowns and led the nation in pass defense, scoring defense and turnover margin.

Throw in a kicking game that featured one of the nation's finest punters and a placekicker who led the nation in field goals and it is hard to argue against the 2001 edition. An astounding seven Hurricanes were named to at least one All-America team's first unit. Six players were finalists for national awards, led by Outland Trophy winner Bryant McKinnie at offensive tackle and Maxwell Award winning quarterback Ken Dorsey.

The 2001 Hurricanes started with a stunning rout of Penn State on the road before the largest crowd (109,313) ever to see a Miami game. They ended Florida State's 54-game unbeaten streak in Tallahassee, Fla., with a resounding 49-27 whipping.

The stars were numerous. On offense: quarterback Ken Dorsey, tailback Clinton Portis (1,200 yards rushing), tight end Jeremy Shockey, an offensive line that allowed an incredibly low two sacks by the starting unit, a receivers corps led by Andre Johnson, a defensive line in which nine players could play without losing a step led by William Joseph, a linebacker corps that developed into a force and a secondary that was the nation's best, led by safety Edward Reed and cornerbacks Mike Rumph and Phillip Buchanon.

The power of this team was evident for all to see in its Rose Bowl rout of Nebraska for the national title. Miami roared to a 34-0 halftime lead, erasing any doubts about what team was college football's best in 2001.

DECEMBER 15, 1962 • NEW YORK, N.Y.

Played in freezing 17-degree weather in icy, snow-banked Yankee Stadium, the lead changed hands six times before Nebraska won 36-34. The Hurricanes rolled up 502 yards to Nebraska's 296 and had a 34-12 edge in first downs. UM quarterback George Mira shattered his UM passing record with 24 completions for 321 yards and two touchdowns, earning him MVP honors.

DECEMBER 10, 1966 • MEMPHIS, TENN.

Playing in frigid 36-degree weather in Memphis, Miami found itself on the trailing end of a 7-0 score at halftime, but proved to be too powerful for Virginia Tech. Miami rallied from a seven-point deficit in the third period on a Bill Miller seven-yard TD pass to Joe Mira. UM marched to its winning TD in the fourth quarter. On the drive, Miller completed three passes to end Jimmy Cox (12,11, and 38 yards), and Doug McGee barreled over from the one on fourth down with 8:05 left in the game. Miami's potent defense was led by All-American Ted Hendricks.

1967 BLUEBONNET BOWL

COLORADO 31, MIAMI 21
DECEMBER 23, 1967 • HOUSTON, TEXAS

In a wild scoring spectacle, Colorado won, 31-21, after the lead had changed hands five times at Rice Stadium. In the first quarter, CU's Larry Plantz scored from seven yards out, then Miami came back with Joe Mira's score from the two. UM moved ahead moments later as Jimmy Dye stole a pass from Dan Kelly and ran 77 yards. A field goal by John Farler just before half, followed by an 80-yard TD march with the second half kickoff, put the Buffs ahead, 17-14. UM regained the lead, 21-17, in the fourth on an 85-yard drive sparked by Bill Miller's four completions to Jerry Daanen, the last one for a nine-yard TD. With six minutes left, CU surged ahead again on a 38-yard run by Bob Anderson.

1981 PEACH BOWL

MIAMI 20, VIRGINIA TECH 10
JANUARY 2, 1981 • ATLANTA, GA.

The Hurricanes embarked on their first postseason bowl appearance since 1967, squaring off against Virginia Tech on a clear Georgia day at Fulton County Stadium. Howard Schnellenberger's troops set the pace early with two long scoring drives that proved to be the winning margin. UM took the opening kickoff 68 yards to paydirt, with QB Jim Kelly hitting Larry Brodsky on a 15-yard strike to culminate the nine-play drive. On Miami's third possession, Kelly connected through the air three times to spark a 10-play, 99-yard drive. Chris Hobbs did the honors with a 12-yard scamper up the middle to cap the drive. The Hokies closed the gap to 14-10 early in the second half, but two field goals by Danny Miller assured Miami of its first bowl victory since 1966. Kelly was selected the game's outstanding player on offense, while UM middle guard Jim Burt was named defensive MVP.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

1984 ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI 31, NEBRASKA 30
JANUARY 2, 1984 • MIAMI, FLA.

UM ended a storybook climb to the national title by dealing Nebraska a 31-30 defeat. Miami QB Bernie Kosar earned MVP honors by throwing for a Orange Bowl-record 300 yards. Linebacker Jack Fernandez was named Defensive MVP as the Canes contained a Nebraska offense that had set numerous NCAA records. Late in the game, Jeff Smith set Nebraska up for the potential win with a 24-yard touchdown run to pull the Huskers to within one. Then, Nebraska lined up for a two-point attempt. Turner Gill rolled right under pressure and lofted a pass toward Smith, but UM strong safety Kenny Calhoun batted it away to seal the UM win.

1985 FIESTA BOWL

UCLA 39, MIAMI 37
JANUARY 1, 1985 • TEMPE, ARIZ.

The Hurricanes were dealt a narrow 39-37 defeat by the UCLA Bruins in the Fiesta Bowl to cap the 1984 season. The lead changed hands seven times before the Bruins' John Lee kicked the deciding field goal with 51 seconds remaining. Melvin Bratton had put Miami ahead on a 3-yard TD pass from Bernie Kosar with 2:58 left, giving UM a 37-36 advantage. The Bruins used eight plays to move 61 yards to the Canes seven, setting up Lee's heroics.

1986 SUGAR BOWL

TENNESSEE 35, MIAMI 7
JANUARY 1, 1986 • NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Amid the revelry of New Orleans' Bourbon Street, the 1986 Sugar Bowl had it all. Miami, with one of the most dominant offenses in college football, was shooting for the national championship. The Volunteers, an underrated team who rolled into New Orleans with a hard-fought SEC title, were looking for the national respect they felt had eluded them. Tennessee used a solid offense and an opportunistic defense to down the second-ranked Canes. Despite constant pressure, Vinny Testaverde threw for 217 yards on 20 of 36 passing. UT QB Daryl Dickey, who earned MVP honors, finished with 131 yards on 15 of 25 passes.

1987 FIESTA BOWL

PENN STATE 14, MIAMI 10
JANUARY 2, 1987 • TEMPE, ARIZ.

A national television audience watched the "Battle For No. 1" and the Hurricanes found themselves 77 yards from the national championship with just over three minutes left to play. Vinny Testaverde engineered a thrilling drive that included a 31-yard strike to Brian Blades on a 4th-and-6 play from Miami's own 27. The pass to Blades was the first of six consecutive completions by Testaverde that brought Miami to PSU's 6-yard line. However, with 18 seconds remaining, Pete Giftopoulos ended UM's drive for the national title by intercepting a Testaverde pass at the goal line. The Canes finished with 445 total yards and 22 first downs while holding PSU to Fiesta Bowl record-lows of 162 yards and just eight first downs. But seven turnovers tripped the Canes on the road to the national title.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

1988 ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI 20, OKLAHOMA 14
JANUARY 1, 1988 • MIAMI, FLA.

For the second time in five years, the Hurricanes were champions of the college football world. Just as they had done in 1983, the '87 Canes knocked off the nation's then No.1-ranked team in the Orange Bowl Classic. The second-ranked Hurricanes capped the school's second straight undefeated regular season with a 20-14 victory over Oklahoma. Sophomore QB Steve Walsh hit on 18-of-30 passing for 209 yards and two touchdowns. Senior fullback Melvin Bratton nearly broke a UM single-game receiving mark by hauling in nine catches for 102 yards before leaving the game with a knee injury. Bernard Clark stepped into the spotlight at middle linebacker and walked away with the game's MVP award after recording 12 unassisted tackles and 14 overall stops, while the defense limited OU to just 255 yards in total offense.

1989 ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI 23, NEBRASKA 3
JANUARY 2, 1989 • MIAMI, FLA.

For the first time in four years, Miami was not playing for the national title in its New Year's bowl game. Moments before kickoff of the 55th annual Orange Bowl Classic vs. Nebraska, the Canes learned that the No. 1 ranked team, Notre Dame, had defeated West Virginia in the Fiesta Bowl. As the nation tuned in to the Orange Bowl, many felt the University of Miami would come out flat, knowing that all possibility of a repeat national title was lost. UM showed its true mettle, dominating the Big Eight Champions on offense, defense and special teams from the kickoff. The statistics backed up the score as UM held a 212-29 lead in total yards and an 11-2 edge in first downs.

JANUARY 1, 1991 • DALLAS, TEXAS

Fourth-ranked Miami won its fourth consecutive bowl game in dominating fashion over No. 3-ranked Texas, 46-3, the most lopsided score in Cotton Bowl history. The Miami defense held Texas to minus-four yards total offense in the first stanza. Craig Erickson, the game's outstanding offensive player, completed 17-of-26 passes for 272 yards and set a Cotton Bowl record with four TDs. Russell Maryland, the game's outstanding defensive player, had nine tackles and three sacks. Miami's defense set a Cotton Bowl mark with nine sacks and Carlos Huerta's 50-yard field goal tied a Cotton Bowl record.

1992 ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI 22, NEBRASKA 0
JANUARY 1, 1992 • MIAMI, FLA.

The No. 1-ranked Hurricanes capped a 12-0 season and claimed their fourth national championship in nine years by dominating the Big Eight Champion Nebraska Cornhuskers, 22-0, in front of an Orange Bowl crowd of 77,747. Miami used the running of Larry Jones, who responded with a career-high 144 yards rushing (earning him MVP honors) and a dominating defense to roll to victory. Miami played with the knowledge that earlier that day the No. 2-ranked Washington Huskies had soundly defeated the Michigan Wolverines in the Rose Bowl, and would ultimately claim a co-national championship with the Hurricanes. The Miami defense held Nebraska to a single yard of offense in the first quarter and 62 total in the first half en route to its second shutout of the year. For the game, UM recorded two interceptions, two fumble recoveries and five sacks, four by sophomore Rusty Medearis.

DECEMBER 27, 1996 • MIAMI, FLA.

Miami won the 1996 Carquest Bowl in entertaining fashion with a 31-21 triumph over Virginia. Defensive standout Tremain Mack provided the fireworks with a pair of Miami touchdowns. Mack, who was a unanimous choice for game MVP, returned a UVA fumble 79 yards for a touchdown to give UM a 14-0 first quarter lead. Mack then gave the Canes an insurmountable 24-7 lead when he picked off Cavalier QB Tim Sherman in the second quarter and raced 42 yards to paydirt. Mack continued his heroics in the third quarter by blocking a Rafeal Garcia 29-yard field goal attempt, the first of two blocked FGs by the Canes. Ryan Clement ignited the Hurricane offense throwing for a career-best 274 yards on 16-of-26 passing with one touchdown.

JANUARY 3, 2003 • TEMPE, ARIZ.

Miami's 34-game winning streak came to an end as Ohio State defeated the Hurricanes 31-24 in double overtime to win the Fiesta Bowl and the BCS National Championship. Maurice Clarett scored his second touchdown on a five-yard run in the second overtime. Craig Krenzel had a pair of touchdown runs for the Buckeyes (14-0), who ended Miami's winning streak -- the sixth-longest in college football history -- in a game of high drama that was prolonged by a controversial pass interference call. It was the first-ever overtime in a BCS title game, despite Miami turning the ball over five times and losing Willis McGahee to a knee injury in the fourth quarter. On the final play of regulation, Todd Sievers kicked a 40-yard field goal to tie it at 17-17. Kellen Winslow Jr. caught a seven-yard TD pass from Ken Dorsey in the first overtime. On 4th-and-goal from the 5, Glenn Sharpe batted away a pass intended for Chris Gamble. Miami began its celebration, but Sharpe was flagged for pass interference. Krenzel then scored on a one-yard run and Miami was stopped in the second overtime.

Ninth-ranked Miami used all its energy to take a tense 16-14 victory over eighth-ranked Florida State in the FedEx Orange Bowl at Pro Player Stadium, riding big performances by Jarrett Payton and Jon Peattie and a big play by D.J. Williams. The Hurricanes (11-2) defeated the Seminoles (10-3) for the fifth straight time, benefiting from a crucial missed field goal for the fifth time in the scintillating series since 1991. Xavier Beitia, who was wide left on a potential game-winning 43-yard field goal in the previous year's loss at Miami, was wide right on a 39-yarder with five and a half minutes to go. Payton, who victimized FSU for 97 yards and a TD catch in a win in October, ran for 131 on 22 carries to earn MVP honors. DECEMBER 31, 2004 • ATLANTA, GA.

The Miami Hurricanes settled for the state title in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Devin Hester returned a blocked field goal 78 yards for a touchdown, Roscoe Parrish returned a punt 72 yards for a score and the No. 14 Hurricanes beat No. 20 Florida, 27-10, at the Georgia Dome. UM earned a third consecutive "state title" by beating Florida and Florida State in the same season and extended its winning streak against the Gators to six games. Brock Berlin finished 13-of-23 for 171 yards. Miami's special teams and defense did the most damage on New Year's Eve. After a blocked punt, UM's Thomas Carroll blocked Matt Leach's 32-yard field goal try. Hester picked up the loose ball and sprinted the other way for a score. Jon Peattie also nailed a 47-yarder to give the Canes a 10-3 lead. DECEMBER 27, 2008 • SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.

Zack Follett forced a fumble by Jacory Harris deep in Miami territory with 3:28 left and Anthony Miller scored the go-ahead touchdown on his first career catch moments later in California's 24-17 victory in the Emerald Bowl. Jahvid Best rushed for a bowl-record 186 yards and two touchdowns, yet the Golden Bears (9-4) still needed a big defensive play and an unlikely hero to hold off the Hurricanes (7-6) in front of a Bay Area crowd teeming with screaming Cal fans. Harris played well in the freshman's second career start, going 25-of-41 for 194 yards and two TDs. LaRon Byrd and Thearon Collier caught Harris' scoring passes for Miami, which tied it on Matt Bosher's 22-yard field goal with 9:13 to play.

2009 CHAMPS SPORTS BOWL

WISCONSIN 20, MIAMI 14

DECEMBER 30, 2009 • ORLANDO, FLA.

John Clay had 121 yards rushing and two touchdowns, powering No. 24 Wisconsin past No. 14 Miami 20-14 in the Champs Sports Bowl. Scott Tolzien threw for 260 yards and Montee Ball added 61 yards rushing for the Badgers. Miami's Jacory Harris struggled before throwing a touchdown pass to Thearon Collier with 1:22 remaining. The Hurricanes recovered the onside kick, but Harris threw incomplete on fourth down to end any hope of a comeback. Harris, who threw for 188 yards, was slowed by an injured right thumb, a brace around his left leg and a Badgers team that smothered him with five sacks. Wisconsin's running game helped it hold the ball for nearly 40 minutes, leaving little time for Miami to work.

NOTRE DAME 33, MIAMI 17

DECEMBER 31, 2010 • EL PASO, TEXAS

Freshman QB Tommy Rees passed for 201 yards and two touchdowns to Michael Floyd as Notre Dame beat Miami, 33-17, in the Sun Bowl. Notre Dame (8-5) reached the end zone on three of its first four possessions. The Hurricanes trailed, 30-3, going into the fourth quarter. Miami scored twice in the fourth quarter when Stephen Morris threw a 6-yard TD pass to Leonard Hankerson and a 42-yard scoring play to Tommy Streeter, but it was too late by then. The Canes trailed, 27-0, late in the first half and the player with the most catches from a Hurricanes quarterback was Irish safety Harrison Smith, who intercepted three passes.

2013 RUSSELL ATHLETIC BOWL

LOUISVILLE 36, MIAMI 9
DECEMBER 28, 2013 • ORLANDO, FLA.

Teddy Bridgewater threw three touchdowns and ran for another score to lead No. 18 Louisville to a 36-9 win over future ACC rival Miami. Bridgewater threw for a career-high 447 yards on 35-of-45 passing. Miami opened the game with a bang, as Deon Bush sacked Bridgewater in the end zone for a safety. After that, Louisville reeled off 36 unanswered points. Freshman RB Gus Edwards rushed for a team-high 38 yards and a touchdown, while QB Stephen Morris completed 12-of-27 passes for 160 yards and was sacked four times in his final game in a Miami uniform.

2015 HYUNDAI SUN BOWL

WASHINGTON STATE 20, MIAMI 14
DECEMBER 26, 2015 • EL PASO, TEXAS

Luke Falk threw two touchdown passes to lead Washington State to a 20-14 victory over Miami in the snowy Sun Bowl. Washington State led 20-7 at the half and looked in total control, limiting Miami to three first downs over the second and third quarters. The Hurricanes rallied in a blizzard in the fourth. Braxton Berrios' 60-yard end-around run set up Mark Walton's 5-yard scoring run that cut it to 20-14 with 13:10 left. The Cougars, the top passing team in the nation during the regular season, were shut out in the second half, leaving it to their defense to wrap up the victory. After a Cougars punt, the Hurricanes were at the Washington State 28, but an end-over-end halfback pass from Joe Yearby was intercepted by Shalom Lunai with 2:58 to play to seal it for Washington State. Brad Kaaya was 17-of-30 for 219 yards with one interception. He appeared to give the Hurricanes a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when he connected in the end zone with receiver Rashawn Scott, but the ball came out of Scott's hands and was intercepted by Peyton Pelluer.

2016 RUSSELL ATHLETIC BOWL

MIAMI 31, WEST VIRGINIA 14

DECEMBER 28, 2016 • ORLANDO, FLA.

In dire need of some offense and with his team trailing West Virginia early in the Russell Athletic Bowl, University of Miami head coach Mark Richt called a simple hitch route to open the Hurricanes' seventh offensive series. Freshman wide receiver Ahmmon Richards caught a pass and blew by four defenders for a 51-yard touchdown, jumpstarting a dominant stretch by Russell Athletic Bowl MVP Brad Kaaya that propelled Miami to its first bowl win since 2006, 31-14 over West Virginia. After Kaaya hit Richards, 48,625 fans watched the junior complete 18 of his next 20 passes, a streak that included a Miami bowl record-tying four touchdown passes. The Hurricanes (9-4) offense had strung together six straight three-and-outs and totaled just 31 yards over their first six drives, but something clicked for Miami after the Richards touchdown. Miami scored points on five straight possessions, including touchdown passes from Kaaya to Malcolm Lewis, Braxton Berrios and David Njoku. Kaaya's four touchdown passes matched Craig Erickson's performance in the 1991 Cotton Bowl.

2017 CAPITAL ONE ORANGE BOWL

WISCONSIN 34, MIAMI 24

DECEMBER 30, 2017 • MIAMI GARDENS, FLA.

In a battle of two teams with outstanding defenses, few could have predicted a game that would feature 58 combined points scored. But an unexpected back-and-forth shootout is exactly what happened at Hard Rock Stadium, as the No. 6 Wisconsin Badgers outscored the No. 10 Miami Hurricanes, 34-24, to win the 2017 Capital One Orange Bowl. Miami (10-3, 7-1 ACC) entered the game looking to run the ball effectively and limit the Wisconsin (13-1, 12-0 Big Ten) ground game and they accomplished both. The Hurricanes totaled 377 yards of offense, including 174 rushing yards. The Badgers had allowed 150 rushing yards or fewer in 12 of 14 games this season. The Canes also held Wisconsin to just 142 rushing yards after the Badgers averaged 229 rushing yards per game this season. But Miami could not find a solution for Wisconsin quarterback Alex Hornibrook, who threw for 258 yards and four touchdowns en route to game MVP honors. DeeJay Dallas and Travis Homer each scored rushing touchdowns for the Hurricanes, while Lawrence Cager hauled in a 38-yard scoring strike. The loss dropped Miami's all-time Orange Bowl record to 6-4.

2018 NEW ERA PINSTRIPE BOWL

WISCONSIN 35, MIAMI 3

DECEMBER 27, 2018 • NEW YORK, N.Y.

The Canes faced the Badgers in a bowl game for the second straight year and were hungry to avenge their 2017 loss to Wisconsin in the Capital One Orange Bowl. But Badgers' All-American running back Jonathan Taylor posted a 205-yard rushing performance and Wisconsin's defense forced five turnovers to ensure a 35-3 victory at Yankee Stadium. The Badgers wasted little time showing they meant business, driving 65 yards in just 3:04 to take a lead in the first quarter. UW doubled its momentum when the Badgers' Eric Burrell picked off Miami quarterback Malik Rosier on the Canes' first play from scrimmage and returned the ball to the UM 7. One play later, Taylor made it 14-0. The Canes continued to shine defensively. With their second sack of the night, a four-yard loss by Michael Pinckney, Miami set the single-season record for tackles for loss in a season. The Canes finished with 10 tackles for loss on the night and closed out the season with a school record 136 TFLs. Miami's previous record of 130 was set in 1999.

2019 WALK-ON'S INDEPENDENCE BOWL

LOUISIANA TECH 14, MIAMI 0

DECEMBER 26, 2019 • SHREVEPORT, LA.

The Miami Hurricanes fell short in a defensive battle at the 2019 Walk-On's Independence Bowl, 14-0. The game featured a combined 18 punts between both teams, with each side punting the ball nine times to set new Independence Bowl records. The two teams also forced four turnovers and combined for seven sacks and nine tackles for loss, showing that offensive success was hard to come by. ACC Freshman of the Year Gregory Rousseau came up with a nine-yard sack on third and 31 to force a punt by the Bulldogs in the first quarter. The sack by Rousseau was his 15th of the year. Team captain Shaquille Quarterman made his UM record 52nd career start and finished the game with 11 tackles. Freshman Sam Brooks had a team-high 12 tackles and 0.5 TFLs in his first career start. Leading 7-0 late in the contest, the Bulldogs solidified the victory with 1:15 remaining in the game, with QB J'Mar Smith rushed into the end zone from eight yards out to put Louisiana Tech up by 14 points. With the win, the Bulldogs secured their first 10-win season since 1984.

OKLAHOMA STATE 37, MIAMI 34

DECEMBER 29, 2020 • ORLANDO, FLA.

A resilient Miami team battled back from a three-touchdown deficit, but could not overcome the early Oklahoma State lead in a 37-34 loss in the 2020 Cheez-It Bowl. Miami (8-3) got on the board in the second quarter when D'Eriq King threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Brevin Jordan. But King left with a right knee injury with 4:06 remaining in the first half. The Hurricanes rallied behind backup quarterback N'Kosi Perry, who threw for 228 yards and two touchdowns. Cam'Ron Harris' 42-yard touchdown run made it 21-19 in the third quarter, but Jordan came up short on the 2-point conversion.Perry's 5-yard TD pass to Michael Harley helped the Hurricanes close to 37-34 with 5:39 left. But he misfired on six of his final nine passes, and his 6-yard pass to Michael Parrott was not enough to convert a fourth-and-9 with under two minutes remaining.

Reed was an All-BIG EAST selection in his final two seasons, and still holds the Hurricanes' record for career interceptions with 21 and interception return yards with 389. Reed won a Super Bowl with Baltimore in 2012, was named to nine Pro Bowls and was selected the NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2004.

WARREN SAPP — 2017 INDUCTEE
DEFENSIVE LINE, 1992-1994

The first Hurricane to ever win the prestigious Lombardi Trophy, Warren Sapp was the unanimous 1994 BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year before being selected in the first round by Tampa Bay in the 1995 NFL Draft. Sapp was also named Defensive Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated, the Football Writers' Association of America (FWAA) and ABC Sports, among others, and led a Miami defense that ranked first in the NCAA in total defense and scoring defense in 1994. Sapp, who also won the Nagurski Trophy, was selected to seven Pro Bowls and won the Super Bowl with Tampa Bay in 2002.

SEAN TAYLOR — 2017 INDUCTEE
SAFETY, 2001-2003

A Miami Hurricanes legend who passed away in 2007, Taylor led the nation in interceptions in his final season in 2003 and set a Miami record by returning three of those picks for scores. Taylor, who was selected in the first round by Washington in the 2004 NFL Draft, was a consensus All-American in 2003, a finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award and was named the 2003 BIG East Defensive Player of the Year. He ranks fifth at Miami in career interceptions (14) and second in interception return yards (306), won a national championship in 2001 and made two Pro Bowls with the Redkins before his tragic death.

VINNY TESTAVERDE — 1997 INDUCTEE
QUARTERBACK, 1982-1986

Vinny Testaverde rewrote nearly every Miami passing and total offense record en route to winning the University of Miami's first Heisman Trophy in 1986 ... He played in only one losing regular-season game and was a consensus All-American selection in 1986 ... He completed 413 of 674 career passing attempts for 6,058 yards and 48 touchdowns in two years as the Miami starting quarterback ... He led the Hurricanes to back-to-back New Year's Day Bowl games at the Sugar and Fiesta Bowls in 1985 and 1986 respectively ... Testaverde, who was inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame in 1998, is one of four Hurricanes to have their jersey retired, along with George Mira, Jim Dooley and Ted Hendricks ... Taken as the No. 1 overall pick by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 1987 NFL Draft, Testaverde posted a stellar 21-year pro career with seven different NFL teams.

GINO TORRETTA — 2008 INDUCTEE
QUARTERBACK, 1989-1992

Gino Torretta played quarterback for UM from 1989-92 and was inducted into the UM Sports Hall of Fame in 2003 and the College Football Hall of Fame in 2008 ... As a senior, Torretta joined fellow UM quarterback Vinny Testaverde in elite company when he was awarded the 1992 Heisman Trophy ... That season, Torretta threw for 3,060 yards and 19 touchdowns while completing 57 percent of his passes ... In addition to winning the Heisman Trophy in 1992, Torretta also won the Maxwell Award, the O'Brien Award, the Unitas Award and the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award ... Torretta played in the NFL for six different clubs, retiring in 1997.

STEVE WALSH — 2009 INDUCTEE
QUARTERBACK, 1985-88

Walsh played quarterback for Miami during the late 80s, leading the Canes to an undefeated regular season and national championship in 1987 ... The following season, Walsh was selected first-team All-American by The Associated Press, ESPN, and the Football Writers Association of America after passing for over 3,100 yards and 29 touchdowns ... As a starter, Walsh went 23-1 for the Hurricanes and finished his career tied with Vinny Testaverde for the most touchdown passes in school history (48) ... He was selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the first round of the 1989 supplemental draft and played 11 seasons in the NFL for six different franchises.

RETIRED JERSEYS

1997 INDUCTEES

The first four inductees into the University of Miami Football Ring of Honor — quarterback George Mira (1961-63), halfback Jim Dooley (1949-51), defensive end Ted Hendricks (1966-68) and quarterback Vinny Testaverde (1982-86) — were recognized on Nov. 1, 1997, during halftime of the Miami vs. Arkansas State game. In addition to their names adorning the facade of the Orange Bowl, these four former Hurricanes had their jerseys retired at the ceremony. They are the only football jersey numbers retired by the University of Miami.

JACK HARDING MVP AWARD

AWARD HISTORY

- Each season the players and coaches of the University of Miami football team select a most valuable player, to be awarded the Jack Harding MVP Award at the annual football banquet.
- Presented since 1964, this honor is the highest performance-based award a Hurricanes player can attain from his teammates. The award is named for former UM head coach and athletic director Jack Harding, who coached the Hurricanes' football team from 1937-42 and 1945-47. Harding relinquished his coaching duties after the 1947 season and took over as athletic director, a post he held until his death in 1963.
- As football coach, Harding oversaw the program's rise into a major program. His 1938 team was his best, traveling to Gainesville, Fla., and handing Florida an upset loss in the first meeting between the schools. His teams posted major intersectional wins over Michigan State, Auburn, NC State, Clemson and Florida that put Miami football on the map.
- A graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, Harding was an accomplished athlete in his own right, lettering in football for legendary coaches Glenn "Pop" Warner and Jock Sutherland, in addition to earning varsity letters in baseball and basketball.

NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS

VINNY TESTAVERDE

1986 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER
1986 MAXWELL AWARD WINNER
1986 DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD WINNER

- Became the first Hurricane to capture the Heisman Trophy in 1986.
- Earned the then-second-highest margin of victory in the Heisman Trophy history.
- Threw for 2,557 yards and 26 touchdowns with only nine interceptions while leading Miami to an undefeated regular season and the nation's No. 1 ranking entering the Fiesta Bowl.
- Was named winner of the Maxwell Award Winner (College Player of the Year), the Davey O'Brien Award (nation's best quarterback) and was named a consensus First-Team All-American.
- Competed with what could arguably be called the deepest quarterbacking crew ever assembled on a college team. At one point in the fall of 1982, the Miami roster at quarterback included Testaverde, future NFL Hall of Famer Jim Kelly, and future NFL star Bernie Kosar, along with prep All-American Kyle Vanderwende and future Miami head coach Mark Richt.
- Led the Hurricanes to a No. 2 national ranking and a Sugar Bowl berth in his first season as the starter, passing for 3,238 yards and completing 61.4 percent of his passes as the Hurricanes posted a 10-2 record.
- Led Miami to a 28-16 win over defending national champion Oklahoma by completing 21-of-28 passes for 261 yards and four touchdowns.
- Set new UM standards for passing greatness as he set school single-season records for completion percentage (63.4%) and passing efficiency (165.80 — the nation's best).

BENNIE BLADES

1987 JIM THORPE AWARD WINNER

- Awarded the Jim Thorpe Award for the best defensive back in college football, which was created in 1986. It was conceived by former Oklahoma City talk show host Ed Sossen and W. Lynne Draper, the Jim Thorpe Association executive director.
- Led the '87 Hurricanes to the national championship and a 12-0 record
- Made 124 tackles and intercepted five passes
- Named a consensus First-Team All-America and ended his career as UM's all-time leader for interceptions (19) and interception return yards (305). He also set UM records for consecutive games with an interception (5); total tackles by a safety (286) and unassisted tackles by a safety (155).
- Led the nation in interceptions in 1986 (.91 per game) and became a first-round draftee of the Detroit Lions (the 3rd pick overall) in the 1988 NFL Draft.
- Shared the Thorpe Award with Oklahoma's Rickey Dixon. Both finished with 144 points in balloting by a 15-member committee. Florida State's Deion Sanders was third in the voting with 125 points.

GINO TORRETTA

1992 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER
1992 UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD WINNER
1992 DAVEY O'BRIEN AWARD WINNER
1992 MAXWELL AWARD WINNER

- Dominated the Heisman voting and became the most decorated football player in Miami history taking every award available to him in '92: the Maxwell Award (best overall player), Davey O'Brien Award (top quarterback), Unitas Award (top senior quarterback), consensus All-American and every player of the year award. As a senior, threw for 3,060 yards while completing almost 57 percent of his pass attempts.
- Second Hurricanes' quarterback to earn the Johnny Unitas Award, capping a brilliant 1992 season with the honor.
- Exceeded 300 yards passing five times, including a 433-yard effort against Iowa in the season opener.
- Very efficiencient quarterback who threw only seven interceptions in 402 pass attempts while throwing 19 touchdown passes.
- Led the Hurricanes to a perfect 12-0 record in the regular season on the way to a No. 1 ranking and a Sugar Bowl berth.
- The Pinole, Calif., product rewrote the Miami record books during a spectacular senior season, leaving UM with 11 records to his name, including career marks for passing yards (7,690), pass completions (555) and total offense (7,722 yards). He also set a record for consecutive passes thrown without an interception (123).
- Joined former Hurricane Vinny Testaverde (1986) as a Davey O'Brien Award winner. Both Steve Walsh (1988) and Craig Erickson (1990) were runners-up in their respective years.

DAN MORGAN

2000 BEDNARIK AWARD WINNER
2000 NAGURSKI TROPHY WINNER
2000 BUTKUS AWARD WINNER

- As a junior in 1999, produced one of the greatest seasons any defensive player has had at the University of Miami, as he made 139 tackles.
- A starter since his true freshman season, came to Miami as a fullback, but during freshman two-a-days in 1997 shined at linebacker.
- Team's leading tackler in 2000 (his third time to lead UM in tackles) with 138.
- Set a school record with 42 consecutive starts and became the first player in the school's history to have 100-plus tackles in each of his four seasons.
- All-time career tackles leader at Miami with 512, breaking the BIG EAST record along the way.
- Named a consensus First-Team All-American and became the first player in college football history to win the Butkus, Nagurski and Bednarik awards in the same season.
- Named Football News National Defensive Player of the Year, an honor he also won on the conference level as voted on by the league's head coaches.

2001 ARCHIE GRIFFIN AWARD
2002 ARCHIE GRIFFIN AWARD

- Received the 2001 Maxwell Award, given annually to the outstanding college football player of the year
- Third Miami Hurricane to win the Maxwell Award as he edged fellow finalists Eric Crouch of Nebraska and Rex Grossman of Florida in the closest vote in the 65-year history of the award.
- Was third behind Crouch and Grossman in the 2001 Heisman Trophy voting.
- Led the Hurricanes to a perfect (12-0) record and the 2001 National Championship.
- Finished his career 26-1 at Miami as a starter at quarterback
- Completed 184 of 318 passes for 2,652 yards with 23 touchdowns and nine interceptions during the 2001 regular season.

JOAQUIN GONZALEZ

2001 DRADDY TROPHY WINNER

- Named winner of the "Academic Heisman," the HealthSouth Draddy Trophy, in a ceremony honoring 16 national scholar-athletes at the National Football Foundation's 44th Annual Awards dinner in New York City.
- One of the nation's top offensive tackles and a major factor in an offensive line that yielded only three quarterback sacks in 2000.
- The 6-foot-6, 298-pound Dean's List member was a three-time Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar Team member, being named to the First Team in 2000.
- Was a four-time BIG EAST Academic All-Conference selection and an Iron Arrow inductee in 2000 (the highest academic honor bestowed to any UM student or staff member).
- Received a bachelor's degree in business administration in May of 2001 and received a master's of business administration in December of 2001.
- Named a First Team All-America twice by The Football Writers Association in 2000 and 2001.
- Named a second-team All-America.
- Selected to the First Team All-BIG EAST Team in both 2000 and 2001 and was the BIG EAST Rookie of the Year in 1998 - the first recipient of the award to earn all-conference academic honors in the same season.

BRYANT McKINNIE

2001 OUTLAND TROPHY WINNER

- Joined Russell Maryland (1990) as an Outland Trophy winner given annually to the nation's top lineman.
- Capped an impressive career when he beat out Nebraska offensive guard Toniu Fonoti and 2000 Outland Trophy winner John Henderson of Tennessee for the award.
- McKinnie, a 6-foot-9, 336-pound senior from Woodbury, N.J., never allowed a sack during his college career and anchored a line that averaged 5.5 yards per rushing attempt on the way to an undefeated season and the national championship.
- Hallmark performance came when he dominated Syracuse All-America defensive end Dwight Freeney in Miami's 59-0 victory, holding Freeney without a quarterback sack in 52 plays, setting the pace for an offense that rushed for a season-best 331 yards and accumulated 566 yards against the Orangemen.
- Played two seasons after transferring from Lackawanna Junior College (Pa.) prior to sitting out the 1999 season as a redshirt.
- Made a name for himself in Miami's 27-24 victory over Florida State at the Orange Bowl when he shut down FSU's Jamal Reynolds, who managed just one assisted tackle in the game. Reynolds was a First-Team All-American, the Lombardi winner and a first-round NFL draft pick.

NATIONAL AWARD WINNERS

BRETT ROMBERG

2002 RIMINGTON TROPHY WINNER

- Became the first University of Miami player to win the Rimington Trophy in 2002.
- Contributed in Miami's 34-game winning streak from 2000 to 2002 as the center.
- Had the versatility to play effectively at guard or tackle, but settled in as the center for his sophomore season in 2000.
- Helped the Hurricanes win 35 of 37 games, one National Championship, three BIG EAST Conference championships, a Sugar Bowl and a Rose Bowl during his career - all with Romberg calling the blocking signals for the offensive line.
- Never allowed a quarterback sack at center and led an offensive line that helped produce three 1,000-yard rushers (James Jackson, Clinton Portis and Willis McGahee), a quarterback (Ken Dorsey) who set every major UM career passing record and an offense that averaged more than 465 yards per game for the balance of his three years as the starting center.
- The Dave Rimington Trophy was one of college football's newest annual awards, given each year since 1999 to college football's outstanding center. It is hosted by the Boomer Esiason Foundation for research and treatment of cystic fibrosis.

KELLEN WINSLOW II

2003 MACKEY AWARD WINNER

- Became the first player in Miami history to win the John Mackey Award.
- The Nassau County Sports Commission presents the prestigious John Mackey Award annually to the most outstanding tight end in Division I-A College Football.
- At 6-foot-5, 245-pounds, led the team with 60 catches and was second on the team with 605 receiving yards, averaging 10.1 yards per catch and 46.5 yards per game as a junior.
- Led or tied for the team lead in receptions in nine games in 2003 and broke the UM record for career receptions by a tight end with 119.
- In his biggest game of the season and the second-biggest of his career, pulled in 10 catches for 104 yards against West Virginia, including a leaping catch over the middle on a critical fourth-and-13 that led to Miami's game-winning field goal in the final seconds against the Mountaineers.
- Made seven catches for 106 yards in the Hurricanes' 22-14 win at Florida State, despite playing in a torrential downpour on a rain-soaked field.
- Stood out as a big-play performer on special teams, blocking a punt against Syracuse.
- Impressed with his blocking ability on offense and special teams in a UM win over Pittsburgh, throwing a key block to spring tailback Jason Geathers for a 78-yard gain on a screen pass that set up a Miami touchdown.
- Following his junior season, was drafted by the Cleveland Browns in the first round as the sixth overall pick in the 2004 NFL Draft.
